

VOLUME I:

50 Common Beauty Pageant Questions and Answers

50. Tell me about a recent goal you accomplished.

Answer: As I stand here in front of you, with this huge audience watching over me, I am proud to say that this is my recently achieved goal, and there are many more in store for me.

49. What made you decide to enter this pageant?

Answer: I always knew this was my calling. And also because of all the people who believed in me.

48. What brings you the most happiness in life?

Answer: What brings me the most happiness in life is achieving my goals.

47. Who, aside from your family, has the biggest influence on you?

Answer: That would be my teachers, for we spend most of our younger years in a classroom with them educating us.

46. If you could get one message out to the world, what would it be?

Answer: Live your dreams!

45. If you were to win this title, how would you balance school, social life, and extracurricular activities?

Answer: Planning and time management are the perfect tools to balance school, social life, and extracurricular activities.

44. Why should you be the next titleholder?

Answer: You should select me to be the titleholder because I promise to fulfill my responsibility to perfection. While doing so, I will strive to be a mirror to all the aspirants and those around me.

43. What would your response be to a person who believes that pageants aren't a good influence for young women?

Answer: Beauty pageants have given women a platform to acknowledge their beauty, knowledge, and skills in front of the world. It is an opportunity to seek the better in you. Beauty contests have also given nations the ability to be prideful with a new accolade.

42. What makes you unique compared to all of the other contestants in this competition?

Answer: I believe that each and every one of us is unique, but what makes me unique is my personality and positive attitude toward everything that I do.

"What Would You Do to Save the World?" Ira Trivedi, 2006 Riya has always had a secret ambition winning the coveted Miss Indian Beauty crown It's Riya's chance to turn fantasy into reality The Miss Indian Beauty contest could well be her ticket to instant fame and success After all she's good looking intelligent confident and most importantly tall how difficult could it be But Riya is in for a dose of reality as she soon finds herself in the company of twenty two gorgeous girls under house arrest in a five star hotel in Mumbai for a rigorous training session that will test them all to their limits With each girl's eyes set on the crown the mood is emotionally charged and the atmosphere intense exhilarating vicious and explosive all at once What Would You Do to Save the World is a delightfully entertaining first novel which reveals the dust behind the diamonds the tears behind the plastic smiles and dishes the dirt on what really goes on behind the scenes of a beauty pageant

The Oxford Handbook of Women and Competition Maryanne L. Fisher, 2017-08-14 While women are generally perceived to be less competitive than men women compete in many ways and in a variety of situations Women try to make themselves look more attractive to draw the attention of a desirable mate They will use gossip as a form of informational warfare to influence reputations They compete as mothers to gain access to resources that directly influence the health of their children They use selfies posted on social media to manipulate others' perceptions Women compete all of their lives in the womb through adolescence and adulthood and into their elder years The topic of women's competition has gained significant momentum over the years Edited by Maryanne L Fisher The Oxford Handbook of Women and Competition provides readers with direct evidence of this growth and is one of the first scholarly volumes to focus specifically on this topic Fisher and her team of contributors offer a definitive worldview of the current state of knowledge regarding competition among women today Many of the chapters are grounded within an evolutionary framework allowing for authors to investigate the adaptive nature of women's competitive behaviors motivations and cognition Other chapters rely on alternative frameworks with contributors also asserting that socio cultural forces are the culprit shaping women s competitive drives Additionally several contributors focus their attention on issues faced by adolescent girls and explore the developmental trajectories for young women through adulthood Designed to serve as a source of inspiration for future research and direction The Oxford Handbook of Women and Competition is a stand out scholarly text focusing on the many competitive forces driving women today

The Most Beautiful Girl in the World Sarah Banet-Weiser,2023-04-28 Sarah Banet Weiser complicates the standard feminist take on beauty pageants in this intriguing look at a hotly contested but enduringly popular American ritual She focuses on the Miss America pageant in particular considering its claim to be an accurate representation of the diversity of contemporary American women Exploring the cultural constructions and legitimations that go on during the long process of the pageant Banet Weiser depicts the beauty pageant stage as a place where concerns about national identity cultural hopes and desires and anxieties about race and gender are crystallized and condensed The beauty pageant she convincingly demonstrates is a profoundly political arena deserving of serious study Drawing on cultural criticism ethnographic research and interviews with pageant participants and officials The Most Beautiful Girl in the World illustrates how contestants invent and reinvent themselves while articulating the female body as a national body Banet Weiser finds that most pageants are characterized by the ambivalence of contemporary liberal feminism which encourages individual achievement self determination and civic responsibility while simultaneously promoting very conventional notions of beauty The book explores the many different aspects of the Miss America pageant including the swimsuit the interview and the talent competitions It also takes a closer look at some extraordinary Miss Americas such as Bess Myerson the first Jewish Miss America Vanessa Williams the first African American Miss America and Heather Whitestone the first Miss America with a disability Sarah Banet Weiser complicates the standard feminist take on beauty pageants in this intriguing look at a hotly contested but enduringly popular American ritual She focuses on the Miss America pageant in particular considering its claim to be an accurate
