Small Business, Big Success Cynthia Kay, 2024-05-06 This book should be at the top of the list for any entrepreneur looking to learn from the experiences of others to fully understand the exhilarating journey from startup to successful exit. This book contains wisdom from people who have been there and done that. A true treasure for the entrepreneurial community. David Galbenski, serial entrepreneur, past global chair of the Entrepreneurs Organization and cofounder and chair of the Global School of Entrepreneurship. An Essential Guide for Entrepreneurs at Every Stage of Business. Small Business Big Success offers unconventional but proven strategies to run a better small business. It also provides a road map for owners looking to expand their small businesses by doing more business with big business. Cynthia's down in the trenches stories, along with those from other small business CEOs and big business experts, show you how to connect with highly sought-after customers and win them over. You'll learn how to create an organization that is operationally efficient, creative, and entrepreneurial. Raise capital and find partnerships. Find your company's voice. Attract and win contracts from much larger companies. Serve complex global companies by forging strong relationships. Most important, you'll learn how to find and nurture your customers. Critical decisions and points in the life cycle of a business are discussed, as well as from start-up issues to growing the business, human resource concerns to strategic planning, not to mention how to attract business from larger companies. The use of real stories along with stories of other small businesses are included to illustrate the strategies and make them come alive.

Global Voice #21 Council on Business & Society, Welcome to Global Voice magazine 21. Out of the Tin Can. This spring issue of the Council on Business Society's quarterly magazine contains 96 pages of research and opinion-based articles featured in two sections: Business Society and Leadership Management. We're delighted to include a special double page dedicated to two new CoBS Deans: Dean Lee Newman and Dean Yu Sakasume, having respectively taken up their functions at leading member institutions IE Business School Spain and Keio Business School Japan. This issue's Editorial also features a spotlight on the unique value case studies bring to the learning experience, co-authored by Richard McCracken, Director of The Case Centre, the world's leading independent home of the case method, and Prof Adrian Zicari of the Council on Business Society. A wry and playful glance at business buzz words and maybe even the state of our hectic modern society is included in our double page cartoon penned by Tom Gamble of the CoBS and illustrated by Matthieu Anziani of ESSEC Business School. And as usual, hats off to the superb Global Voice graphic design by CoBS Head of Design M. Lissa Guillou. Faculty practitioner and student articles provide the bread and butter of this issue, with topics covering big data and customer value, how to manage remote working, designing mentorship programmes, TechForGood, greening up supply chains with circular economy strategy, non-financial social and environmental disclosure, and a spotlight on smart cities in Japan, among others. And lastly, you may ask why this issue carries the subtitle 'Out of the Tin Can'. The temptation is to say that it's up to you to interpret it, for there are many interpretations possible. Some of these might point to the David Bowie classic

Space Oddity and the fact that at last many of us in our societies are once again able to step out of the confinement imposed by the pandemic to breath freely again Another interpretation hand in hand with the snappy front cover image might refer to Andy Warhol s iconic pop art consumerism or simply the tastiness of the contents the tin cans hold a little like the insights in this magazine if I dare say And lastly the shades of green to the cans give the message that our consuming society might well contain a new and more responsible sustainable taste to it In any case we hope you download this Global Voice 21 issue open it up and consume its insights with immoderation Enjoy your reading

Flexible Lives Stefanie Reissner, Michal Izak, 2025-08-07 This geographically and methodologically diverse volume shines the spotlight on a variety of flexible working practices beyond the predominantly Western perspective and zooms in on the gendered aspects of flexible working The increasing use of flexible work arrangements has decoupled work from time and space making the world of work and home increasingly fluid and challenging to manage The Covid 19 pandemic in particular has been a catalyst for questioning accepted norms of where when and how work takes place This book seeks to explore the impact which this reshaping of traditional modes of working has had on workplace interactions and relationships as well as on managing the boundaries between familial and working lives In this way this collection contributes to a wider dialogue concerning the flexibility challenges encountered by white collar workers which is needed now more than ever This book will be relevant to scholars practitioners and policymakers in the fields of gender studies organizational behavior human resources and labor economics It will be particularly useful for those examining the impact of remote work the future of work organizational culture and the social and economic implications of shifting work practices The chapters in this book were originally published in Culture and Organization and are accompanied by an updated Introduction and a new Epilogue
