Feel-Good Productivity Ali Abdaal, 2023-12-26 The secret to productivity isn't discipline. It's joy. We think that productivity is all about hard work. That the road to success is lined with endless frustration and toil. But what if there's another way? Dr. Ali Abdaal, the world's most followed productivity expert, has uncovered an easier and happier path to success. Drawing on decades of psychological research, he has found that the secret to productivity and success isn't grind; it's feeling good. If you can make your work feel good, then productivity takes care of itself. In this revolutionary book, Ali reveals how the science of feel-good productivity can transform your life. He introduces the three hidden energisers that underpin enjoyable productivity, the three blockers we must overcome to beat procrastination, and the three sustainers that prevent burnout and help us achieve lasting fulfillment. He recounts the inspiring stories of founders, Olympians, and Nobel-winning scientists who embody the principles of Feel Good Productivity. And he introduces the simple, actionable changes that you can use to achieve more and live better, starting today. Armed with Ali's insights, you won't just accomplish more; you'll feel happier and more fulfilled along the way.

Amplifying Management Research for the Common Good Robert H. Tiell, S. Charles Malka, 2024-03-01 How can management research promote a more applicable and a more transparent knowledge for the benefit of individuals and organizations? Looming large over this question is the challenge of repurposing management research for improving public good. Co-edited by R. H. Tiell and S. C. Malka, the title of the book says it all: Amplifying management research for the common good. Lessons for curious individuals and organizations. Insights from practitioners in the field. In this book, we sought to bridge the chasm that separates the non-academic audience from the typically less accessible scientific journals. We attempted to make empirical evidence more inclusive, impactful, and public good relevant for the non-academic stakeholders that live and work in the broader community. For that purpose, we made available to the reader and to our chapter contributors a collection of published papers, some authored by the editors of this book and others co-authored with other researchers. The papers cover a diverse set of business topics, all of which we believe hold much relevance for management today. Providing the reader with their insights on subject matter, along with lessons and practical recommendations, we sought experts in the field that can build on empirical research in various areas of management and then synthesize and broaden it through their expertise and work experience. As a trigger, we aligned each contributor with one or two empirical papers based on their background, interests, and professional experience. Using the assigned papers as a springboard, we asked each author to identify emerging themes around which they can build their chapter. We wanted them to think of the book audience: non-academicians comprised of interested and curious individuals, managers, and their organizations. And we wanted our authors to elaborate on practical lessons, suggestions, and recommendations that can make a difference in the lives of the book audience. Our effort resulted in a collection of chapters covering a wide range of topics, from supply chain challenges in Central America to life-changing long-term effects of the pandemic, from delivery of services for mental health and suicide to logistics capabilities pre post Ivan in the Cayman Islands from the new workplace to labor market shortages and from new workforce service pathways and the optimization of talent to the impact of recent recessions on the youth and the unemployed and the assessment of C suit level leaders We would like to believe that the breadth of the topics covered and the amount of information being disseminated through the book chapters are meaningful practical and relevant to a wide audience of curious readers
