Media Authorship Cynthia Chris, David A. Gerstner, 2013 Contemporary media authorship is frequently collaborative participatory non site specific or quite simply goes unrecognized In this volume media and film scholars explore the theoretical debates around authorship intention and identity within the rapidly transforming and globalized culture industry of new media Defining media broadly across a range of creative artifacts and production cultures from visual arts to videogames from textiles to television contributors consider authoring practices of artists designers do it yourselfers media professionals scholars and others Specifically they ask What constitutes media and authorship in a technologically converged globally conglomerated multiplatform environment for the production and distribution of content What can we learn from cinematic and literary models of authorship and critiques of those models with regard to authorship not only in television and recorded music but also interactive media such as videogames and the Internet How do we conceive of authorship through practices in which users generate content collaboratively or via appropriation What institutional prerogatives and legal debates around intellectual property rights fair use and copyright bear on concepts of authorship in new media By addressing these issues Media Authorship demonstrates that the concept of authorship as formulated in literary and film studies is reinvigorated contested remade even reauthored by new practices in the digital media environment

Advanced Research Methodology: Methods And Techniques Dr. S. Parvathy, Dr. M. Umayavalli, Dr. P. Ramu, Mrs. V. Manjula, 2023-07-28 The researcher's inner world is formed by his or her choice of research methodology which considers the nature of the study and the researcher's philosophy time frame and other contextual factors Furthermore the research methodology works as the central nervous system since it limits the scope of the investigation and because proper research work necessitates that both the internal and exterior surroundings adhere to the correct research methodology procedure Research methodologies refer to the procedures used to assemble information for studies The data might be used for theoretical or applied studies such as the strategic conceptualization of management research operational planning methodologies and change management Most of your work will be done when you complete the data analysis However before you start you need to consider specific crucial issues in research technique such as the validity of research data ethics and dependability After this comes the research plan which might be either purely experimental or include some elements of experimentation The last two steps are analyzing the data and producing the research report The data is meticulously sorted into graphs tables and only the most relevant information is presented A researcher must develop a research approach appropriate to the study's subject matter It is essential to remember that even if two topics need the same study approach the research technique might differ
