Want to Become a Mompreneur? Here's How:

1

Pick your business idea.

Be sure it's flexible enough to fit in your schedule and gives you plenty of time to raise kiddos, full-time jobs, family and some you-time.

2

Create a business plan.

Your business plan helps to have everything laid out from the get-go.

3

Choose a business name.

Make it fun, memorable and not too similar to other competition. Use a business name search tool to make sure it's available in your state.

4

Select your business entity.

An LLC is a great fit for most mompreneurs.

5

Name your Registered Agent.

They'll need to be available to receive significant notices during regular business hours, so select someone else — not yourself.

6

Secure your EIN and business bank account.

7

Start running your business.

Being a mompreneur is your superpower!

Using a business formation service like incfile as busy moms drive and hassle of tedious paperwork, so they can focus on running their business.
