We Can Teach That Ewa Dziedzic-Elliott, 2024-11-28 Information literacy is a complex subject that finally arrived at the doorstep of school libraries For decades academic researchers have been trying to capture the essence of information literacy its educational cognitive and civic value The collection of book chapters offered in We Can Teach That is a handbook that can be used as an inspiration for teaching various types of literacy visual digital multicultural health and more The book asks important questions When do we start teaching information literacy How do we teach it How does it affect our students at their education level How does it prepare them for their post high school adult life Does it impact their transition to college or career Dziedzic Elliott and her collaborators provide a range of best practices and concepts that inspire thinking about teaching information literacy at all levels Although written with school librarians in mind the book can be easily adapted by teachers school administrators and even public librarians who are looking to incorporate information literacy elements in their daily practices The book challenges the reader to rethink what they know about digital or tech literacy breaks some stereotypical concepts about multicultural literacy and highlights the importance of literacies even in adulthood

A High School English Teacher's Guide to Writing Memoir Coley Conter, Mary Ehrenworth, Lauren Gould, 2025-12-31 A High School English Teacher's Guide to Writing Memoir is more than a set of writing lessons it s a call to see your students and help them see themselves through the power of story With more than forty flexible lessons and a robust suite of downloadable charts tools mentor texts and AI recommendations this guide helps you teach memoir as courageous storytelling and self discovery Students will write honestly revise bravely and publish in formats that matter to them from anthologies to picture books to multimodal memoirs Grounded in research and practical classroom strategies this guidebook walks teachers through each stage of memoir writing from generating story ideas and experimenting with structure to revising with intention and experimenting with conventions Along the way it centers mentor text inquiry writing partnerships and author's craft. It also embraces new technologies including AI as part of the writing process so your students will emerge confident and adept as digital writers. Whether your students are excavating memories wrestling with identity or discovering their voice for the first time, this guide helps them transform raw moments into powerful memoirs. And for you, the teacher, it brings a new kind of classroom intimacy, a deepened community, and the reminder that storytelling is the heart of being known. Let memoir become a source of meaning, connection, and growth for every writer in your room.

Resources and Lesson Plans for Teaching Art & Design Students Z. Smith, 2023-06-13. Are you supporting international students of creative disciplines to develop their English language skills? Perhaps you are teaching on a preparatory college course or maybe you need some original ideas on themes such as plastic waste and upcycling for your teenage learners. When it comes to published materials to help develop language skills for international students on English for academic purposes (EAP) courses, they are often rather dry and too limited for developing the ability of art design students to switch deftly between concrete and abstract ideas. This book provides content for up to 50 lessons. It covers the fundamentals of communicating in higher education contexts and introduces many original and relevant topics with recurring emphases on sustainability and student centeredness. The material can be used face to face and/or online and can be flexibly supplemented according to need.

AI in Social Studies Education Christopher H. Clark, Cathryn van Kessel, 2025. The introduction of widely available generative AI tools has caused a frenzy of both positive and negative reactions. Between utopian visions and apocalyptic predictions of AI's impact on education, there is a need to thoughtfully consider what education in the age of AI can and should look like. This volume focuses on the implications of AI technology for teachers in K-12 and university settings, providing a careful look at its affordances and drawbacks for social studies curriculum and teaching. Scholars specializing in the field of social studies education provide information and practical ideas for teaching with current technology alongside frameworks for thinking about future iterations of AI. This book fills a critical need, especially among educators, to consider the current and potential future impacts of AI while avoiding the traps of alarmism or techno-utopianism. Whether skeptical or enthusiastic about AI, every social studies educator will find something useful to their practice in this book.

Book Features:

- First ever compilation of AI considerations and strategies in the context of social studies education.
- Non-technical explanations of what AI can do and not do in practical educational contexts to enable educators to approach its use with careful judgment.
- Advice for educators to help them assess future iterations of AI technology.
- Critical considerations of AI across multiple contexts: e.g., ethics, equity, multilingual learners, cybersecurity.
- Work from leaders in technology and social studies education across Canada and the United States.
