populations from white middle class women with young children to people of color to poor families to the new sorts of families gays and lesbians are struggling to construct to fathers to older children To discuss work and family is also to discuss gender Ranging from California s Silicon Valley to a remote fishing village in the northeast part one shows how new work arrangements have created new expectations for what it means to be a woman or a man and how slow and uneven the pace of change can be Nowhere are the tensions of work and family more potent than around childcare Part two takes up these tensions showing how various solutions to caring for children of all ages whether infants or teenagers create new problems Parts three and four turn outward to show how the new relationships between families and work are changing the relationships between families and the communities in which they live and generating new social policy dilemmas The Father's Almanac St. Clair Adams Sullivan,1980 The Farmers' Advocate and Home Magazine ,1920 Single Fathers Geoffrey L.
