Handbook of Research on Remote Work and Worker Well-Being in the Post-COVID-19 Era Wheatley, Daniel, Hardill, Irene, Buglass, Sarah, 2021-04-16 With the introduction of policies to combat COVID 19 far greater numbers of employees across the globe including those with limited job autonomy have moved to undertake their entire job at home. Although challenging in the current climate embracing these flexible modes of work such as working at home including relevant investment in technology to enable this will not only deliver potential organizational benefits but also increase the adaptability of the labor market in the short and longer terms. Although perhaps not the central concern of many in the current climate good home based work is achievable and perhaps even a solution to the current work based dilemma created by COVID 19 and should be a common goal for individuals organizations and society. Research also has shifted to focus on the routines of workers organizational performance and well being of companies and their employees along with reflections on the ways in which these developments may influence and alter the nature of paid work into the post COVID 19 era. The Handbook of Research on Remote Work and Worker Well Being in the Post COVID 19 Era focuses on the rapid expansion of remote working in response to the global COVID 19 pandemic and the impacts it has had on both employees and businesses. The content of the book progresses understanding and raises awareness of the benefits and challenges faced by large scale movements to remote working considering the wide array of different ways in which the large scale movement to remote working is impacting working lives and the economy. This book covers how different fields of work are responding and implementing remote work along with providing a presentation of how work occurs in digital spaces and the impacts on different topics such as gender dynamics and virtual togetherness. It is an ideal reference book for HR professionals business managers executives entrepreneurs policymakers researchers students practitioners academicians and business professionals interested in the latest research on remote working and its impacts. Public Sector Leadership Petri Virtanen, Harri Jalonen, Marika Tammela, 2022-11-30 Drawing its origins from the Human Relations movement of the early 20th century and from public leadership orientations emphasising human aspects human centred public leadership approaches leadership from a system's perspective. It explores societal institutions organisations and phenomena as an emergent system structure that manifests its existence through the multilateral and reciprocal interaction of its parts. Systems thinking and the need for systemic change suggest that one can only understand and improve a system by looking at how all the parts interact with each other and how they are integrated. The systemic nature of public leadership refers to dynamic learning mechanisms as they relate to the contents of leadership development tools which are derived mainly from the changing mode of the operating environment from the leaders own experience from their own personalities from a learning by doing approach to leadership development and from the ways in which leaders learn and unlearn. This book presents key concepts approaches origins applications and best practices to understand the evolution and nature of human centred approach in public leadership It introduces a new public leadership paradigm that is needed in a complex internationally interconnected social economic cultural and political environment Based on scholarly public leadership research in addition to the authors professional experience as academics managers practitioners and consultants this volume offers guidance for decision makers public business and non governmental sector leaders managers and practitioners about how to create a context and contents for human centred leadership in the age of complex society and turbulent operating environment It will be of value to researchers academics and students in the in the fields of leadership and public management The Virginia School Journal ,1894 Includes Official department conducted by Superintendent of Public Instruction

Glocalized Solutions for Sustainability in Manufacturing Jürgen Hesselbach,Christoph Herrmann,2011-03-19 The 18th CIRP International Conference on Life Cycle Engineering LCE 2011 continues a long tradition of scientific meetings focusing on the exchange of industrial and academic knowledge and experiences in life cycle assessment product development sustainable manufacturing and end of life management The theme Glocalized Solutions for Sustainability in Manufacturing addresses the need for engineers to develop solutions which have the potential to address global challenges by providing products services and processes taking into account local capabilities and constraints to achieve an economically socially and environmentally sustainable society in a global perspective Glocalized Solutions for Sustainability in Manufacturing do not only involve products or services that are changed for a local market by simple substitution or the omitting of functions Products and services need to be addressed that ensure a high standard of living everywhere Resources required for manufacturing and use of such products are limited and not evenly distributed in the world Locally available resources local capabilities as well as local constraints have to be drivers for product and process innovations with respect to the entire life cycle The 18th CIRP International Conference on Life Cycle Engineering LCE 2011 serves as a platform for the discussion of the resulting challenges and the collaborative development of new scientific ideas
