Leading From Anywhere David Burkus, 2021-01-05 Leading from Anywhere is the best book on remote work I've ever read incisive original and eminently practical Read it and take notes Daniel H Pink author of When Drive and To Sell Is Human The ultimate guide to leading remote teams tackling the key challenges that managers face from hiring and onboarding new members from afar to building culture remotely tracking productivity communicating speedily and avoiding burnout It's undeniable that we're entering a new era of remote work While many leaders seek to run business as usual why settle for the usual when remote teams allow us to work even better The research shows that employees are more productive and engaged when they have the freedom to work from anywhere Which means leaders need the skills to lead from anywhere In this meticulously researched refreshingly practical book top business thought leader David Burkus provides managers with the field guide to leading remotely packed with everyday examples and illuminating insights Structured around the life cycle of working on a team Burkus tackles the key inflection points and challenges that remote managers face from taking the team remote and adding new members to communicating effectively and quickly managing performance keeping the team engaged and even helping them strike the right balance between work and life Leading from Anywhere provides everything you'll need to survive and thrive as the leader of a remote team something all leaders will need to consider themselves from now on

The Advance, 1911 The Congregationalist and Advance, 1918 Fixing Broken Cities John Kromer, 2023-03-28 Fixing Broken Cities explores the planning execution and impact of urban repopulation and investment strategies that were launched in the wake of two crises late twentieth century economic disinvestment and the outbreak of the COVID 19 pandemic Because past practices could no longer serve as a reliable guide to future outcomes in this uncertain environment any new initiatives had to involve a significant level of risk taking Based on the author's experience as a policymaker and practitioner this book provides detailed insights into the origins and outcomes of these high risk strategies along with an explanation of why they succeeded or failed This new edition examines policy initiatives from a fresh perspective based on an awareness that 1 real estate ventures are best evaluated over the long term rather than shortly after the completion of construction activity 2 policies that had guided the allocation of public sector resources during past decades of urban disinvestment need to be reconsidered in light of the economic resurgence that many American cities are now experiencing and 3 the places described in this book are representative of other municipalities of all kinds where the pandemic has led to a fundamental rethinking of the relationship between home and workplace A key theme of the book is equitable development the question of who should benefit from the allocation of scarce public capital and what investment policies are most likely to support this principle over the long term The author provides realistic guidance about pursuing the best opportunities for improvement in highly disadvantaged resource starved urban areas with reference to several key issues that are pressing concerns for members of urban communities enlivening downtown and neighborhood commercial areas stabilizing and strengthening residential communities eliminating industrial age blight and providing quality public education options This new edition will be of great use to planning housing and community development professionals both regionally and nationally as well as to students on Urban Politics and Planning courses

Equal Partners? Jaclyn S Wong, 2023-04-18 Many young professionals seek egalitarian partnerships in which both partners work for pay and share unpaid housework and childcare Yet working couples realities often deviate from this ideal with women trading off employment for family care Will contemporary young adults repeat this pattern or will they come closer to achieving equality in work and family Equal Partners seeks to explore this question Drawing on six years of interviews with the partners in twenty one different gender couples Jaclyn S Wong documents how supportive workplaces partners steadfast gender egalitarian attitudes and partners jointly coordinated actions all need to come together for couples to experience gender equality in work and family This book offers a compelling study of the dynamics of couples in ambitious partnerships who aspire to equality as they navigate the external pressures that come with life planning
