The Context Marketing Revolution Mathew Sweezey, 2020-03-24 In a world of limitless media noise how can businesses break through to customers Context We are in the midst of a massive media revolution For the first time in history ordinary people around the world have the ability to create distribute and consume content instantly from anywhere using connected devices The massive increase in media noise created by these consumers and devices creates an entirely new situation that makes conventional marketing models obsolete And yet countless companies and marketing organizations continue to rely on traditional models assuming that their campaigns will sway customers They couldn't be more wrong In this provocative and practical book Salesforce marketing maven Mathew Sweezey boldly outlines this new infinite media environment and poses a profound question In a transformed world where customers shape their own experience what is the key to breaking through and motivating them to buy It is context the close linkage between an individual's immediate desires and the experiences a brand creates to fulfill them Drawing on new research and new insights into current consumer psychology Sweezy defines the five key elements of context Customer experiences must be Available Helping people achieve the value they seek in the moment Permissioned Giving people what they've asked for on their terms Personal Going beyond how personal it is to how personally you can deliver it Authentic Combining voice empathy and brand congruence simultaneously Purposeful Creating a deeper connection to the brand beyond the product Sweezy uses vivid examples to highlight a new marketing model used by high performing brands big and small The final part of the book shifts to execution providing a new rule book for context based marketing The Context Marketing Revolution will change forever how you think about the purpose and practice of marketing

Facebook - The symbol of postmodernity? Tobias Henze, 2013-03-20 Seminar paper from the year 2011 in the subject Cultural Studies Miscellaneous grade 8.5 Maastricht University language English abstract It is the world's largest social network Stross 2010 connecting over 600 million users from more than 200 countries on an Internet page that was founded just 7 years ago Socialbakers 2011a The founder Mark Zuckerberg was named person of the year 2010 Grossman 2010 by Time magazine and is ranked number 40 on Forbes list of the world's most powerful people with a net worth of approximately 13.5 billion Forbes 2011 Facebook the social network this paper is dealing with has become part of the daily routine of many users sometimes influencing their purchase decisions or even the way they perceive and see the world Moreover it has become an Internet brand which can now be regarded to be on an equal level with Amazon eBay or Google Without doubt Facebook has to be regarded as an important feature of growing inter connectivity which was made possible through the rise and spread of the Internet The social network enables people to get in touch with each other find so called friends all over the world and to create a personal profile representing the user within the Facebook network Facebook's self stated mission is to give people the power to share and make the world more open and connected Facebook 2011 Of course this mission is not a revolutionary new idea in the World Wide Web as several social networks and micro blogging websites like MySpace LinkedIn or Twitter show Still Facebook is the most widely known preferred and fastest growing social network of today's world As a matter of fact it is also often claimed to be the most influential social network Brennan Schafer 2010 p 19 of our times

 Cunningham,2008-10-03 The world s cultures and their forms of creation presentation and preservation are deeply affected by globalization in ways that are inadequately documented and understood The Cultures and Globalization series is designed to fill this void in our knowledge In this series leading experts and emerging scholars track cultural trends connected to globalization throughout the world resulting in a powerful analytic tool kit that encompasses the transnational flows and scapes of contemporary cultures Each volume presents data on cultural phenomena through colourful innovative information graphics to give a quantitative portrait of the cultural dimensions and contours of globalization This second volume The Cultural Economy analyses the dynamic relationship in which culture is part of the process of economic change that in turn changes the conditions of culture It brings together perspectives from different disciplines to examine such critical issues as the production of cultural goods and services and the patterns of economic globalization the relationship between the commodification of the cultural economy and the aesthetic realm current and emerging organizational forms for the investment production distribution and consumption of cultural goods and services the complex relations between creators producers distributors and consumers of culture the policy implications of a globalizing cultural economy By demonstrating empirically how the cultural industries interact with globalization this volume will provide students of contemporary culture
