The Art and Science of Making the New Man in Early 20th-Century Russia Yvonne Howell,Nikolai Krementsov,2021-12-02 The idea that morally mentally and physically superior new men might replace the currently existing mankind has periodically seized the imagination of intellectuals leaders and reformers throughout history This volume offers a multidisciplinary investigation into how the new man was made in Russia and the early Soviet Union in the first third of the 20th century The traditional narrative of the Soviet new man as a creature forged by propaganda is challenged by the strikingly new and varied case studies presented here The book focuses on the interplay between the rapidly developing experimental life sciences such as biology medicine and psychology and countless cultural products ranging from film and fiction dolls and museum exhibits to pedagogical projects sculptures and exemplary agricultural fairs With contributions from scholars based in the United States Canada the UK Germany and Russia the picture that emerges is emphatically more complex contradictory and suggestive of strong parallels with other new man visions in Europe and elsewhere In contrast to previous interpretations that focused largely on the apparent disconnect between utopian new man rhetoric and the harsh realities of everyday life in the Soviet Union this volume brings to light the surprising historical trajectories of new man visions their often obscure origins acclaimed and forgotten champions unexpected and complicated results and mutual interrelations In short the volume is a timely examination of a recurring theme in modern history when dramatic advancements in science and technology conjoin with anxieties about the future to fuel dreams of a new and improved mankind

Considerations on Cyber Behavior and Mass Technology in Modern Society Beneventi, Paolo, 2024-01-30 In our fast paced technology driven world there is a strong sense of untapped potential and unfulfilled promises People today possess an unprecedented amount of power through their technological gadgets but often remain unaware of how to wield it effectively This lack of understanding and agency leads to a plethora of societal problems from passive consumerism to environmental degradation fostering a sense of helplessness Considerations of Cyber Behavior and Mass Technology in Modern Society offer a comprehensive solution to this pressing issue It is a scholarly beacon guiding academic scholars and critical thinkers toward a profound reassessment of our relationship with technology and society By delving into the intricate web of topics such as active citizenship global information production and the coexistence of consumer technology and freedom our book presents an opportunity to explore the root causes of our modern day challenges
