The Information Society Reader with Raimo Blom, Erkki Karvonen, Harri Melin, Kaarle Nordenstreng, Ensio Puoskari, Frank Webster, Professor Frank Webster, 2020-04-02 There has been much debate over the idea of the information society Some thinkers have argued that information is becoming the key ordering principle in society whereas others suggest that the rise of information has been overstated Whatever the case it cannot be denied that informatization has produced vast changes in advanced societies The Information Society Reader pulls together the main contributions to this debate from some of the key figures in the field Major topics addressed include post industrialism surveillance transformations the network society democracy digital divisions virtual relations With a comprehensive introduction from Frank Webster selections from Manuel Castells Anthony Giddens Michel Foucault and Christopher Lasch amongst others and section introductions contextualising the readings this book will be an invaluable resource for students and academics studying contemporary society and all things cyber

Re-thinking Mediations of Post-truth Politics and Trust Jayson Harsin, 2023-12-29 This collection reaches beyond fake news and propaganda misinformation and charismatic liars to explore the lesser publicized cultural forms and practices that serve as a cultural infrastructure for post truth society and politics Situating post truth in specific contexts as a site of contestation or crisis the book critically explores it as a dynamic and shifting site around which political and cultural practices in specific contexts revolve and overlap Through a breadth of perspectives the volume considers a number of overlapping cultural and political developments across varying national and transnational contexts changing technologies and practices of cultural production that sometimes shift and at other times reproduce authority of traditional institutional truth tellers seismic cultural changes in representations values and roles regarding gender sexuality race and historical memory about them as well as corresponding reactionary discourses in the culture wars questions of authenticity honesty and power relations that combine many of the former shifts within an all encompassing culture of self promotional attentional capitalism These considerations lead scholars to focus on corresponding shifting cultural dynamics of popular truth telling and dis trust making that inform political culture In this more global view post truth becomes foremost an influentially anxious public mood about the struggles to secure or undermine publicly accepted facts This nuanced and insightful collection will interest scholars and students of communication studies media and cultural studies media ethics journalism media literacy sociology anthropology philosophy and politics New
