Adolescent Use of New Media and Internet Technologies Gordon P. D. Ingram, 2023-03-31 This book engages with contemporary and often polarizing debates surrounding the risks of adolescent use of digital media and internet technologies By drawing on multiple research studies the text synthesizes current understandings of the impacts of social network use online gaming pornography and phenomena including cyberbullying cyberstalking and internet addiction to develop recommendations for the effective identification of at risk youth as well as strategies for informed communication about online risks and opportunities It shows how media discussion of risks to children and teenagers from new technology is highly emotive and often exaggerated rooted in the moral panic surrounding new cultural practices that young people engage in but which adults do not understand Online risks are thus conceptualized as centering on three areas specific to adolescence which have undergone radical changes due to new internet technology These include young people's identity the types of content that are accessed and social relationships The author shows how these matters stem from the potential of new technology to establish new interpersonal connections emphasizing how it brings opportunities as much as risks As such he provides a uniquely balanced discussion of potential dangers while also emphasizing the opportunities for social academic and personal growth which new technologies afford young people It will be indispensable for researchers and clinicians interested in assessing levels of online risk as well as scholars and educators with interests in cyberpsychology social psychology cyber culture social aspects of computing and media and adolescent development      Youth, Critical Literacies, and Civic Engagement Theresa Rogers, Kari-Lynn Winters, Mia Perry, Anne-Marie LaMonde, 2014-11-27 Through stories of youth using their many voices in and out of school to explore and express their ideas about the world this book brings to the forefront the reality of lived literacy experiences of adolescents in today's culture in which literacy practices reflect important cultural messages about the interplay of local and global civic engagement The focus is on three areas of youth civic engagement and cultural critique homelessness violence and performing adolescence The authors explore how youth appropriate the arts media and literacy as resources and how this enables them to express their identities and engage in social and cultural engagement and critique The book describes how the youth in the various projects represented entered the public sphere the claims they made the ways readers might think about pedagogical engagements practice and goals as forms of civic engagement and implications for critical and arts and media based literacy pedagogies in schools that forward democratic citizenship in a time when we are losing sight of issues of equity and social justice in our communities and nations
