Who Cares About Parents? Kim Price-Glynn, 2025-11-11 Who cares for parental caregivers The short answer is parenting groups do Who Cares for Parents examines how parenting groups collectively build and contribute significant resources to form a broader care infrastructure for adult family caregivers with children This book looks at the content of care parenting groups provide for parents through comparative research including mothers fathers and nonbinary parents Cases include some of the most recognizable parenting groups in the United States some with vast networks of parent members numbering in the thousands or even millions like the Parent Teacher Association La Leche League and MOMS Club International The book also examines newer and perhaps less well known groups like the City Dads Group the Upper East Side UES Mommas as well as smaller sets of local dads groups and a babysitting co op Can parents in the contemporary United States secure some of the necessary resources to provide care not only for their children but also for themselves through parenting groups The evidence from this research suggests they can Parenting groups have a long history of organizing membership meetings education material resources and advocacy to provide for parents needs Parenting groups ideologies and practices often seek broad goals and sometimes include far reaching advocacy innovative solutions and possibilities for what Price Glynn calls strategic parenting and social change Alongside their successes however parenting groups also face challenges of producing narrow and temporary alliances exclusion and exacerbating inequalities Despite their many challenges Price Glynn remains hopeful about the possibilities for non familial and collective care infrastructure like that performed by parent groups Father Malebranche's Treatise Concerning the Search After Truth Nicolas Malebranche,1694 The Bookfinder Sharon Spredemann Dreyer,1989 Country Guide and Nor'west Farmer ,1924 American Annual Cyclopaedia and Register of Important Events ,1903 AIA Guide to New York City Norval White, Elliot Willensky, Fran Leadon, American Institute of Architects.
