T-Kit 6 - Training essentials Sabine Klocker, Snežana Bačlija Knoch, Stefan Manevski, 2021-12-01 The training of youth workers is one of the main priorities of both the European Commission and the Council of Europe and of their partnership in the field of youth Youth work is in the spotlight for both institutions and youth workers are essential for the quality of its provision This revised T Kit aims to equip youth workers and youth trainers with the essentials of non formal education training It is a practical tool for them to develop training competences and learn more about educational theory concepts tools practices resources as well as hands on tips as this handbook is written by trainers for trainers and youth workers in the European youth field Whereas other T Kits focus on one specific area of youth work training this one emerges from the broader European youth work context and enables trainers and youth workers to reflect on their daily practice as this publication follows the logic of an entire training cycle from beginning to end of any youth training programme with an international dimension The European youth training field has undergone massive changes since this T Kit was first published in 2002 Especially when it comes to digitalisation the focus on trainer competences and competence development training standards and quality criteria for training recognition of non formal education accessibility and diverse ability dimensions Topics such as access gender environment and sustainability or the focus on learning environments emotional management and well being of the trainer have greatly changed non formal education settings This T Kit offers information links and resources on how to work with young people in non formal education training settings today and make a difference in their personal lives as well as their peer groups and communities beyond

Integration of Vocational Education and Training Experiences Sarojni Choy, Gun-Britt Wärvik, Viveca Lindberg, 2018-06-19 This book draws on experiences from a range of vocational education systems in different nation states and re examines the purpose of providing experiences outside educational institutions the kinds and extent of those experiences and efforts made to ensure the integration of students experiences across sites Analyses of the various vocational education systems their purposes and practices across nations and challenges experienced by different stakeholders illustrate different approaches to the integration of learning at different sites The book includes a consideration of what constitutes the integration and reconciliation of experiences and their attendant educational implications This extends an appraisal of the concepts of integration reconciliation curriculum and work readiness each of which has a range of connotations Integration or reconciliation is differentiated from transfer of learning which is commonly based on simple assumptions that the educational institutions will provide theory and that the workplaces will provide practice from the workplaces and that the two can be easily linked by students The contributions from different nation states clearly demonstrate that integration is a collaborative process and requires the agency of stakeholders operating at global national and specific learning site levels
