Internet Memes and Copyright Law Brian Chun Lok Leung, 2025-09-30 This book explores the intricate relationship between copyright law and internet meme culture challenging an assumption that copyright is a barrier to digital creativity Using the lens of internet memes to analyse copyright law in the context of participatory remix culture the book confronts a common perception that copyright is the destroyer of internet memes on social media platforms Following the European Union's Copyright Directive widely known as the Meme Ban this book critically examines whether copyright might instead be reimagined to foster rather than inhibit re creations that define internet meme culture The book argues that this culture directly challenges copyright's core assumptions and proposes a new holistic approach to copyright that distinguishes between traditional and emergent forms of creative processes Arguing for a flexible interpretation of copyright that limits private proprietary rights in the case of internet memes it provides a legal framework to support socio cultural discourse without undermining copyright's foundational principles Covering core copyright concepts such as authorship idea expression originality fair dealing and user rights the book provides a compelling argument as to how copyright can adapt to the digital age as a protector of cultural expressions ensuring that internet memes are not only preserved but celebrated The book will be of interest to researchers in the field of copyright law the law of emerging technologies and intellectual property law

TikTok users topped 1.2 billion in the month of March 2022. Over six hundred and fifty million people had downloaded the TikTok app by the time the year 2021 came to a close and 2022 began. TikTok users spent a total of 2.3 billion in 2021 in the form of consumer spending on the platform. One of the reasons for TikTok's appeal is the short video format which is quite popular particularly among younger people. This format has gained a lot of traction in recent years. Because TikTok today has more than 1.2 billion active users it is highly likely that you will be able to locate your target demographic on the network. You are able to locate TikTok influencers that are already well known on the network and collaborate with them to target certain geographic areas. A user is considered to be a micro influencer by TikTok if they have at least 10,000 followers and it is common for these individuals to have a sizable following in the region in which they reside. However it is essential that you have the right mindset and that you develop the necessary skills in order to be able to use TikTok to make your business go viral. Getting the marketing plan for your TikTok channel just right is not a simple feat. On TikTok numerous companies have wasted their time and resources attempting to sell their brands products and services. If you want to get the most out of your efforts to promote your company on TikTok and to create videos for it you need to educate yourself on how to do so in the most effective manner. You have a responsibility to educate yourself on the advantages of incorporating TikTok into your online marketing approach as well as the means by which you can amass a greater number of views and followers. Here's where my advice for you comes in. You will approach the promotion of your business on TikTok and the creation of videos in the right way to achieve the best results. You will learn the benefits of adding TikTok to your online marketing strategy. You will be able to gain more views and followers on TikTok. You will learn proven techniques to get the best results from TikTok. You will learn the TikTok marketing mistakes that you need to avoid. Plus a whole lot more. To make it easy I've put together a step by step guide that will show you exactly how it's done.
