bring many advantages to us and the environment Let's work remotely for a better world The pandemic has forced us into remote working with no clue how to do it without the means without the preparation needed The good thing is that it has given us the great opportunity to work from home which might otherwise have taken years or even decades to arrive Remote work is the new normal There is going to be more and more remote employment It's up to you to adapt to it and to take advantage of all the benefits it holds for your career Carmen Corral has been remote working for more than eight years both for companies and for herself After more than ten years working in Human Resources and Personnel Development stuck in an office from Monday to Friday 9 to 5 she decided to do something that gave her more flexibility in when and where she worked Now she works remotely while traveling the world

Managing at a Distance Tom Coughlan, David J.

Fogarty, Gary Bernstein, Lynda Wilson, 2024-02-26 The world of hybrid and remote management is a territory that has yet to be completely explored this book provides some simple navigational aids to help managers and leaders find their way

Research indicates that over 56% of college graduates currently work either remotely or in a hybrid arrangement while prior to the pandemic less than 5% of working hours were remote How to manage remote and hybrid workers has rapidly become a significant challenge and one that often requires new policies and organizational restructuring The remote work handbooks available are tactical which can be helpful for day to day decisions but not to tackle larger issues and initiatives This book presents a fully formed research backed strategic framework more than a vehicle to the future it will help leaders to understand where they are now and what is happening around them to change the landscape and to decide where they want to be Speaking to senior executives and team leaders as well as business students this book will become the preferred tool for the development and evaluation of remote and hybrid management policy and strategy across industries
