Bellman, 1998      To what Extent Increases YouTube the Success of an Online Gamer? The Example of Bajheera Jessica Blasberg, 2019-03-08 Seminar paper from the year 2016 in the subject Communications Multimedia Internet New Technologies grade 1.7 Fresenius University of Applied Sciences K In language English abstract Jackson Bliton better known online as Bajheera lifts games and gets paid to do so He lives in two different worlds In the real one the 25 year old Californian lives like a normal boy and does typical human stuff Then at least once per day he goes to the Internet transforms into Bajheera and plays a video game called World of Warcraft He spends a majority of his day playing this game while filming himself besides so thousands of people around the world can follow him do it either in a live stream or by watching recorded videos Thanks to the power of platforms like YouTube or Twitch online gamers play video games not just for private amusement they play for the masses and get paid to do it They earn money while spending their time in a virtual world and producing YouTube videos about playing video games As technology marches on the world of gaming changed from playing alone or at most with a partner in front of a video game console to the possibility of playing online with several people around the world The prerequisite for playing an online game is to command internet connectivity because they can be played only after logging in to the server that hosts the game world Furthermore the aspect of interacting with thousands of players worldwide possible due social media platforms like YouTube creates a new revolutionary option of online gaming In recent years YouTube has been dominated by videos about online gaming that show people playing popular video games and adding their own funny commentary More than half of the top independent YouTubers upload those videos On global basis online gaming in connection to broadcast websites as YouTube has grown into a multi billion dollar business While in the past mainly attract younger men nowadays audience has expanded and include also women and older age groups
