16. These rainforests are home to the Pygmies. They are some of the last traditional hunter-gatherers on Earth, living in much the same way as they have for 100,000 years, finding food wherever they can.
17. Mating across the species barrier was first studied more than 30 years ago.
18. The aim of the project is to study every aspect of the hybridization process, by dissecting the marrow and soft tissue of the body and examining the skeletons in a miniature CT scanner.
19. Archaic humans had been leaving Africa for at least 1.5 million years.
20. As DNA ages, it breaks down into billions of fragments that are mixed up and contaminated with the DNA of insects and bacteria.
21. One of the first questions we were interested in was, "What happened when modern humans came out of Africa and met Neanderthals?"
22. Outside of Africa, it seems that everyone in the world has inherited between 1 % and 2 % of their DNA from Neanderthals.
23. Archaeologists have found a mass of tools, bones, and ornaments.
24. 55,000 years ago, modern humans were migrating into the Middle East. At the same time, a cold spell in Europe had pushed Neanderthals further south.
25. What was once scientific heresy—that we mated and interbred with Neanderthals—has become scientific fact.
26. We are all hybrids, 7 billion of us across planet Earth.

After watching First Peoples: Africa, answer the following questions using complete sentences and grade-level writing. Use ideas presented in the video and this worksheet to support your ideas.

27. How has our understanding of who modern humans are changed due to DNA mapping and new scientific and archaeological finds?

28. Why is it important to understand the origins of modern human species? What does this do to our sense of belonging and understanding of who we are as a species and people?

Classroom Connect Newsletter ,2001 Educating for the Twenty-First Century: Seven Global Challenges Conrad Hughes,2018-07-26 Educating for the Twenty First Century is an engaging account of some of the most critical challenges for humanity seen through the unique perspective of a school principal A virtuoso performance of great imaginative force the book takes the reader through philosophical reflections humorous anecdotes syntheses of cutting edge research and examples of best practice to answer fundamental questions about education and learning in the 21st century Provocative touching accessible but always profound the book is a must read for policy makers school and university leaders parents and anyone passionate about education and the future of the planet A significant book which makes it required reading for educators public policy experts indeed every thoughtful citizen of our time AC Grayling Philosopher and Master of the New College of the Humanities An essential book for all those who are interested in the future of their children in other words the very future of humanity Luc Ferry Philosopher and former Minister of Education France Sovereign Evolution Ezra Aharone,2008 From emancipation to segregation to integration African Americans exist today by virtue of a continuum of political evolutions each of which is built upon prior legacies and achievements In advancing our political progression Sovereign Evolution re declares freedom and equality in 21st century terms using sovereign principles and standards Whether the issue concerns Katrina and Jena or being underrepresented in Congress and overrepresented in penitentiaries the common thread as Ezra Aharone demonstrates is that African Americans are an Un Sovereign People who pay varying degrees of Un Sovereign Consequences Thus in a very methodical manner he circumscribes sovereignty in a universal and historical context that confers African Americans with just as much integrity and authority as any other people to espouse and employ sovereign aspirations The ideological framework herein self applies and legitimizes the concept of sovereignty in ways that no other work has succinctly captured in politically relatable terms specific for African Americans Realizing that not all African Americans will embrace sovereign values Aharone uniquely specifies how a Sovereign Evolution can mutually advance the best interests of us all without conflict or compromise to core beliefs of anyone Accordingly the book sets a platform to infuse sovereign discourse into mainstream domains that reach from street corners of the hoods to Black universities to church congregations to the halls of Congress The advent of President Barack Obama indicates a necessary and long awaited political shift in time and history which also conveys veiled implications of our sovereign potentials as a people Whatonce seemed politically improbable has proven to be politically achievable Our only political limitations exist within the limits of our vision and courage To this end Ezra Aharone factually sculpts the sociopolitical substance of our historical experience into a sovereign consciousness and political language to initiate a Manifest Destiny from Civil Rights to Sovereign Rights     IPTVisions ,1997     Newsletter ,1999     The Social Studies Professional ,2008     IPL Newsletter ,2000     The Best of History Web Sites Thomas Daccord,2007 Educator and technology trainer Thomas Daccord has painstakingly selected and compiled this guide to the best history sites for use in high school academic and public libraries The Best of History Web Sites is the quickest path to a rich variety of content including multimedia presentations subject gateways lesson plans and activities primary resources interactive quizzes and games virtual tours maps and atlases statistical collections and more     Children and Social Studies Murry R.
