All Marketers are Liars Seth Godin, 2005 Touareg which is virtually the same car We believe that 225 Pumas will make our feet feel better and look cooler than 20 no names And believing it makes it true Successful marketers don't talk about features or even benefits Instead they tell a story A story we want to believe This is a book about doing what consumers demand painting vivid pictures that they choose to believe Every organization from nonprofits to car companies from political campaigns to wineglass blowers must understand that the rules have changed again In an economy where the richest have an infinite number of choices and no time to make them every organization is a marketer and all marketing is about telling stories This is a powerful book for anyone who wants to create things people truly want as opposed to commodities that people merely need

The Sponsored Life Leslie Savan, 2010-06-17 How does a blatant lying in TV commercials like Joe Isuzu's manic claims create public trust in a product or a company How does a company associated with a disaster Exxon or Du Pont for example restore its reputation What is the real story behind the rendering of the now infamous Joe Camel And what is the deeper meaning of living in an ad ad ad world For a decade journalist Leslie Savan has been exposing the techniques used by advertisers to push products and pump up corporate images In the lively essays in this collection Savan penetrates beneath the slick surfaces of specific ads and marketing campaigns to show how they reflect and shape consumer desires Savan's interviews with ad agencies and corporate clients along with her insightful analyses of influential TV sports reveal how successful advertising works Ads do more than command attention They are signposts to the political cultural and social trends that infiltrate the individual consumer s psyche Think of the products associated with corporate mascots the drum beating bunny the cereal pushing tiger the doughboy that have become pop culture icons Think cool Think of the clothing manufacturer that uses multiracial imagery Think progressive Buy their worldview buy their product When virtually every product can be associate with some positive self image we are subtly refashioned into the advertiser s concept of a good citizen Like it or not we lead the sponsored life

Liars Seth Godin, 2012-04-24 The indispensable classic on marketing by the bestselling author of Tribes and Purple Cow

Legendary business writer Seth Godin has three essential questions for every marketer What's your story Will the people who need to hear this story believe it Is it true All marketers tell stories And if they do it right we believe them We believe that wine tastes better in a 20 glass than a 1 glass We believe that an 80 000 Porsche is vastly superior to a 36 000 Volkswagen that's virtually the same car We believe that 225 sneakers make our feet feel better and look cooler than a 25 brand And believing it makes it true As Seth Godin has taught hundreds of thousands of marketers and students around the world great marketers don't talk about features or even benefits Instead they tell a story a story we want to believe whether it's factual or not In a world where most people have an infinite number of choices and no time to make them every organization is a marketer and all marketing is about telling stories Marketers succeed when they tell us a story that fits our worldview a story that we intuitively embrace and then share with our friends Think of the Dyson vacuum cleaner or Fiji water or the iPod But beware If your stories are inauthentic you cross the line from fib to fraud Marketers fail when they are selfish and scurrilous when they abuse the tools of their trade and make the world worse That's a lesson learned the hard way by telemarketers cigarette companies and sleazy politicians But for the rest of us it's time to embrace the power of the story As Godin writes Stories make it easier to understand the world Stories are the only way we know to spread an idea Marketers didn't invent storytelling They just perfected it
