Africa Peace Review ,2011      The Sage Handbook of Peace and Conflict Studies Maia Carter Hallward, Ji Eun Kim, Cécile Mouly, Timothy Seidel, Zubairu Wai, 2025-06-07 The Sage Handbook of Peace and Conflict Studies offers a comprehensive exploration of the complexities of violence conflict and peace from a global interdisciplinary perspective The handbook addresses the traditional Western centric approach while emphasizing the need to integrate Global South perspectives to create a more inclusive and transformative understanding of peace and conflict While important voices in peace and conflict studies have long stressed the need to not only address direct violence but also structural and cultural one certain strands of the field have upheld conservative knowledge production and reinforced unequal power structures This volume seeks to challenge these biases by foregrounding critical and decolonial approaches that emphasize gender race culture global history and political economy Its diverse chapters invite us to question mainstream assumptions and promote a broader more inclusive analysis of peace and conflict The handbook explores the evolution of the field highlighting the impact of historical events and the role of oppositional knowledge in political change It offers a critical overview of theoretical approaches emphasizing reflexivity inclusivity and the importance of local actors in peace and conflict dynamics Additionally it examines how cultural and disciplinary assumptions shape peacebuilding and conflict transformation and it critiques traditional global narratives on issues like governance climate change and human rights Finally the handbook presents real world case studies that integrate themes of decoloniality race gender and power inequalities across diverse global contexts By centering the Global South and integrating interdisciplinary perspectives this handbook provides valuable insights for scholars and practitioners committed to fostering a more equitable and just world

Uwazie, 2019-01-15 This publication is the product of the 25th Annual Africa and Diaspora Conference in 2016 organized by the Center for African Peace and Conflict Resolution at California State University Sacramento on the theme of Peace and Conflict Resolution in Africa 25 Years Later Lessons Best Practices and Opportunities It brings together reflections on both historical and contemporary or recurring conflicts in Africa especially on issues of ethno religious conflicts corruption land and leadership The chapters include case studies and some theoretical perspectives on the persistent search for the right size and scope of visioning and programming on peace and conflict resolution in Africa Understandably this collection of ideas thoughts and proposals will resonate with the field of Peace and Conflict Studies Arguably Africa is rising in the 21st century with declining violent conflicts and an increase in stable democracies and economies However there are still the significant challenges of extremism climate change poor governance ineffective leadership widening wealth gaps and weak institutions of moderation The essays collected here also document areas of progress in legitimizing democracy and conceptualizing social justice and suggest the need for building the next generation of peace leaders in Africa Gender, Peace and Security in Africa Cheryl Hendricks,Romi Sigsworth,2018-02-06 There is often a moment in time that acts as a rallying point around a particular issue 2015 was one of those moments for women peace and security as numerous landmark anniversaries were celebrated in the field Africa has in many ways been the global laboratory for the gender peace and security agenda not only because of the number of conflicts occurring on the continent but also because African regional organisations governments and civil society organisations have been at the forefront of striving for gender equality and implementing United Nations Security Council Resolution 1325 This book explores gender peace and security in Africa from multiple angles including the conceptual and implementation challenges and shifts around women peace and security in Africa over the last 15 years women s role as combatants in national liberation forces in South Africa the dynamics of gender in the military through the lens of Kenyan women combatants food security through a feminist lens and a series of case studies on the nexus between gender and security in Zimbabwe Nigeria Madagascar the Democratic Republic of Congo Kenya and Somalia This book was previously published as a special issue of the African Security Review Peacekeeping and the African Union Jude Cocodia,2017-09-27 This book offers a detailed examination of the effectiveness of the peacekeeping operations of the African Union Despite its growing reputation in peacekeeping and its status as the oldest continental peacekeeper the performance of the African Union AU has hitherto not been assessed This book fills that gap and analyses six case studies Burundi Comoros Somalia Mali Darfur and the Central African Republic From a methodological perspective it takes a problem solving approach and utilises process tracing in its analysis with its standard for success resting on achieving negative peace the cessation of violence and provision of security Theoretically this study offers a comprehensive list of factors drawn from peace literature and field experience which influence the outcome of peacekeeping Beyond the major issues such as funding international collaboration and mandate this work also examines the impact of largely ignored factors such as force integrity and territory size The book modifies the claim of peace literature on what matters for success and advocates the indispensability of domestic elite cooperation local initiative and international political will It recognises the necessity of factors such as lead state and force integrity for certain peace operations In bringing these factors together this study expands the peacekeeping debate on what matters for stability in conflict areas This book will be of much interest to students of peacekeeping African politics war and conflict studies and International Relations in general Africa Peace Review , Peace Psychology Herbert H. Blumberg,A. Paul Hare,Anna Costin,2006-12-07 This textbook provides a comprehensive introduction to peace psychology covering interdisciplinary practice primary psychological topics core peace studies topics and terrorism Local and Global Dynamics of Peacebuilding Christine Cubitt,2012-03-12 Local and Global Dynamics of Peacebuilding examines the complex contributing factors which led to war and state collapse in Sierra Leone and the international peacebuilding and statebuilding operations which followed the cessation of the violence. This book presents nuanced and contextually specific knowledge of Sierra Leone's political and war histories and the outcomes of the implementation of programmes of post conflict reforms. It embodies an analysis of the complex challenges involved in aligning international norms and values to local expectations and local priorities and examines the role of local and global actors and structures in attempts to build a strong state and lasting peace. Using a theoretical framework informed by liberal peace philosophy as well as detailed and nuanced empirical evidence from the field, the book constructs a critical analysis of the contemporary global paradigm for building longer term peace in war torn, fractured and fragile societies. This book will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding, war and conflict studies, development studies, African politics and IR security studies.

Alternative Dispute Resolution and Peace-building in Africa Ernest E.

Uwazie, 2014-06-26 Conflicts in Africa have a great deal in common and striking parallels can be drawn between them at all levels. Dynamics affecting the most complex war time conflicts, civil unrest and other macro disputes are in play even in the smallest community conflicts. The converse is also true: lessons learned through community mediation for example in South Africa are applicable to the most complex and largest conflicts to be found on the continent. Together the eleven chapters in this publication, in addition to the prologue and epilogue, suggest that a comprehensive assessment of efforts and investments in conflict resolution and peace studies in Africa since the mid 1990s is due in order to identify lessons and challenges as well as best practices. Just as conflict dynamics are comparable between African conflicts, whether large or small, local or international, so are alternative dispute resolution processes. Effective approaches to resolving large scale conflicts and civil wars are effective at the community level and ineffectual techniques at the community level are just as likely to be counter productive in mediating international disputes. While there may be some differences in mediating macro and micro conflicts, such as the time required, the need for negotiation teams and the complexities of agenda development or pre negotiations, as far as the mediation process is concerned, the differences are more like variations on a theme than real substantive dissimilarities. This volume provides case studies of programs and policies and legislations on alternative dispute resolution and peace building and examines and proposes some new promising ideas for conflict prevention as well as maintenance of peace, justice and security in Africa.

Peace, Conflict, and Violence Daniel J. Christie, Richard V. Wagner, Deborah Du Nann Winter, 2001 For courses in peace studies, peace education, international studies, psychology, political science, anthropology and sociology. It is also appropriate for any course that addresses conflict, including conflict resolution, violence and peace. Peace, Conflict, and Violence brings together the key concepts, themes, theories and practices that are defining peace psychology as we begin the 21st century. This comprehensive book is rooted in psychology but includes a wide range of interpersonal, community, national and international contexts, multiple levels of analysis from micro to macro and multi disciplinary perspectives. It reflects the breadth of the field and captures the main intellectual currents in peace psychology.

Routledge Handbook of Peace, Security and Development Fen Osler Hampson, Alpaslan Özerdem, Jonathan Kent, 2020-06-04 This Handbook offers a comprehensive examination of the peace security and development nexus from a global perspective and investigates the interfaces of these issues in a context characterised by many new challenges By bringing together more than 40 leading experts and commentators from across the world the Handbook maps the various research agendas related to these three themes taking stock of existing work and debates while outlining areas for further engagement In doing so the chapters may serve as a primer for new researchers while also informing the wider scholarly community about the latest research trends and innovations The volume is split into three thematic parts Concepts and approaches New drivers of conflict insecurity and developmental challenges Actors institutions and processes For ease of use and organisational consistency each chapter provides readers with an overview of each research area a review of the state of the literature a summary of the major debates and promising directions for future research This Handbook will be of much interest to students of peace and conflict studies development studies security studies and International Relations

Journal of Peace, Conflict and Military Studies, 2002 Peace and Conflict in Africa

David Francis, 2013-04-04 Nowhere in the world is the demand for peace more prominent and challenging than in Africa From state collapse and anarchy in Somalia to protracted wars and rampant corruption in the Congo from bloody civil wars and extreme poverty in Sierra Leone to humanitarian crisis and authoritarianism in Sudan the continent is the focus of growing political and media attention This book presents the first comprehensive overview of conflict and peace across the continent Bringing together a range of leading academics from Africa and beyond Peace and Conflict in Africa is an ideal introduction to key themes of conflict resolution peacebuilding security and development The book's stress on the importance of indigenous Africa approaches to creating peace makes it an innovative and exciting intervention in the field

The African Union Tony Karbo,Tim Murithi,2017-11-23 The African Union has been a major factor in establishing peace security and development in Africa Today however the intranational body is struggling in the midst of a perceived dissipating appetite for supporting continental institutions Previously seen as the panacea to Africa s continuing problems with violence and corruption in society under the slogan African Solutions to African Problems the African Union this book argues seems to have run its course Recognizing that the measured successes in political emancipation which have been recorded across the African continent do not seem to have translated into economic and social gains for its 1 2 billion citizens the AU adopted a new development framework dubbed Agenda 2063 The framework calls on African leaders to rediscover the Pan African spirit and to create the Africa Africans want In practice this means a new focus and engagement with the African Diaspora tapping into their strong track record in economic development As this book shows however there remain deep differences over the meaning timing and sequencing of pan African integration Indeed different member states have different understandings of the role of the African Union itself This essential handbook from one of the leading research institutions on the continent seeks to uncover what some of those understandings are and why the unification project has remained so elusive      Electoral Conflict Management in Kenya Solomon P. K. Muhindi,2019      Psychology Leslie Swartz,Cheryl De la Rey,Norman Duncan (Ph. D.),2004 This is a solid foundational undergraduate text written from a fresh and innovative perspective The text is divided into ten sections covering various key theoretical areas in psychology There are 41 chapters written by contributors representing universities across South Africa and in the United States and UK A golden thread narrative is written by psychologist Kerry Gibson at the beginning of each chapter linking the concepts explained to the southern African scenario      Regional Development Dialogue ,2005 An international journal focusing on third world development problems
