

AFRICAN THEOLOGY: Its History, Dynamics, Scope and Future

Paul Bowers

AFRICAN THEOLOGY

The term "African Theology" commonly refers to the lively conversation within the African Christian community that, beginning early in the 1960s and increasing unabated to the present, seeks to address the intellectual and theological issues which concern that community. This conversation has attracted interest and significance owing not least to the rapid growth of the Christian community in Africa, which is now the majority faith in large portions of the continent and is apparently set to become a principal centre of world Christianity.

The diversity of the Christian community in Africa, and of its theological practitioners, has produced numerous divergent

Dr. Paul Bowers has taught in theological education in Africa since 1968. He has also been involved with the Accrediting Council for Theological Education in Africa (ACTEA) since 1976, with ACT since 1980 and with SouthAsian for Africa since 1996. Currently he is the International Administrator of the International Council for Evangelical Theological Education (ICETE). Dr. Bowers holds a PhD in biblical studies from the University of Cambridge in England. This article on "African Theology" appeared last year in the revised edition of the widely used Evangelical Dictionary of Theology edited by Walter A. Elwell (2nd edition, Grand Rapids: Baker Book House, 2001), under the title, "African Theology", and is reprinted here (with minor corrections) by permission of the publisher, Baker Book House (PO Box 6187, Grand Rapids, MI 49516, USA).

Handbook of African Catholicism Ilo, Stan Chu, 2022-07-13 A disciplinary map for understanding African Catholicism today by engaging some of the most pressing and pertinent issues topics and conversations in diverse fields of studies in African Catholicism

Reinventing Theology in Post-Genocide Rwanda Marcel Uwineza, Elisée Rutagambwa, Michel Segatagara Kamanzi, 2023 In the year 2019 Rwanda marked twenty five years after the genocide against the Tutsi Sadly Catholic priests and nuns were complicit or even participated in the killing of an estimated 800 000 ethnic Tutsis Thousands of people were slaughtered in Catholic Churches where they took refuge For example 5000 people are estimated to have been killed at the Ntarama Catholic Church in August 1994 In March of 2017 Pope Francis issued an apology remarking that the sins and failings of the Church and its members had disfigured the face of Catholicism This statement recognized that the Catholic Church s role in the genocide has implicated the entire Church and is an invitation to reimagine the very essence of the meaning of the Church theology in its multiple dimensions the missionary enterprise the mission of the Church and the place of human dignity in the Catholic faith The task of rethinking what it means to be the Church and restoring fraternal identity as Christians in post genocide Rwanda is thus crucial if theology is to make sense again This is particularly imperative in as much as theology is compelled to reflect upon the very evils that have disfigured the Church s image and people s identity namely the evils of sin suffering the indifference of bystanders the increasing number of genocide deniers the complexity of memory the lack of credible and prophetic leadership that invites a new way of thinking about theology This book brings together bishops theologians historians and other scholars to reflect on how the Rwandan Catholic Church can restore fundamental peace and rebuild lasting reconciliation

Rediscovering Jesus in Our Places Elia Shabani Mligo, 2020-05-28 The question of contextual theology and its relevance to Africa in this time of globalization whereby there are rampant uncontrolled changes in cultures technologies economic policies and even people s religious lives is very urgent How is contextual theology relevant in the ever changing contexts of the church in Africa Indeed there are a number of challenges which contextual theology faces within the church in Africa which need to be addressed contextually Some such challenges include poverty rampant violence homosexuality alcoholism the resurgence of prosperity gospel materialistic prophets and incurable illnesses like Ebola HIV and AIDS and the current coronavirus COVID 19 However which context in Africa Context in Africa as in other parts of the world is always in flux it is complex and fluid There is no permanent context The experience of Jesus in such a changing context needs to be rediscovered depending on what transpires in each particular place at a particular time This book addresses some of the overarching challenges that face contextual theology and how such challenges should be addressed by the church in Africa in contemporary ever changing context for it to be relevant in Africa It also highlights the need to move from liberation and inculturation theologies to reconstruction theology in dealing with the challenges of the current church Hence the book is important to students and scholars engaging in practical systematic biblical and contextual theologies in all their branches The Routledge Companion to John Wesley Clive Murray Norris, Joseph W. Cunningham, 2023-08-01 The Routledge Companion to John Wesley provides an overview of the work and ideas of one of the principal founders of Methodism John Wesley 1703 91 Wesley remains highly influential especially within the worldwide Methodist movement of some eighty million people As a preacher and religious reformer his efforts led to the rise of a global Protestant movement but the wide ranging topics addressed in his writings also suggest a mind steeped in the intellectual developments of the North Atlantic early modern world His numerous publications cover not only theology but ethics history aesthetics politics human rights health and wellbeing cosmology and ecology This volume places Wesley within his eighteenth century context analyzes his contribution to thought across his multiple interests and assesses his continuing relevance today It contains essays by an international team of scholars drawn from within the Methodist tradition and beyond This is a valuable reference particularly for scholars of Methodist Studies theology church history and religious history

Decolonising Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) in an Age of Technocolonialism

Artwell Nhemachena, Nokuthula Hlabangane, 2020-02-14 Positing the notions of coloniality of ignorance and geopolitics of ignorance as central to coloniality and colonisation this book examines how colonialists socially produced ignorance among colonised indigenous peoples so as to render them docile and manageable Dismissing colonial descriptions of indigenous people as savages illiterate irrational prelogical mystical primitive barbaric and backward the book argues that imperialists colonialists contrived geopolitics of ignorance wherein indigenous regions were forced to become ignorant hence containable and manageable in the imperial world Questioning the provenance of modernist epistemologies the book asks why Eurocentric scholars only contest the provenance of indigenous knowledges artefacts and scientific collections Interrogating why empire sponsors the decolonisation of universities epistemologies in indigenous territories while resisting the repatriation restitution of indigenous artefacts the book also wonders why Westerners who still retain indigenous artefacts skulls and skeletons in their museums universities and private collections do not consider such artefacts and skulls to be colonising them as well The book is valuable to scholars and activists in the fields of anthropology museums and heritage studies science and technology studies decoloniality policymaking education politics sociology and development studies

Re-Imaging Modernity Gregg A. Okesson, 2012-10-03 This is a book about Christianity in one particular region in Kenya

It walks into churches listens to sermons dances to music and interviews the people sitting in the pews all with the aim of understanding how spiritual power enables these churches to function as agents within their contemporary society Ecclesiastical communities in Africa draw upon divine power in order to engage in modernity related topics Humans are not unresponsive to global flows of meaning they are integrative agents who fashion their world by living in it The kind of modernity arising from these churches does not blindly follow Western forms but flows from its own internal logic in which spiritual power occupies central hermeneutical function Theological resources contribute to the formation of sociological expressions Divine power pertains directly to human constructs which then allows the churches to actively image God for the development of unique forms of modernity arising on the continent

The Anglican Communion at a Crossroads

Christopher Craig Brittain, Andrew McKinnon, 2018-04-17 Worldwide debates over issues of sexuality and gender have come to a head in recent years in mainline and evangelical churches with the Anglican Communion a worldwide network of churches that trace their practice to Canterbury and claim some 85 million members among the most publicly visible sites of contestation This thorough and compelling analysis of the conflicts within the Communion argues that they are symptoms of long simmering issues that must be addressed when Anglican bishops and archbishops meet at the 2020 Lambeth Conference To many the disagreements over such issues as LGBTQ clergy same sex marriage and women's ordination suggest an insurmountable crisis facing Anglicans one that may ultimately end the Communion Christopher Craig Brittain and Andrew McKinnon argue otherwise Drawing on extensive empirical research and interviews with influential Anglican leaders they show how these struggles stem from a complex interplay of factors notably the forces and effects of globalization new communications technology and previous decisions made by the Communion In clarifying both the theological arguments and social forces at play as the bishops and primates of the Anglican Communion prepare to set the Church's course for the next decade Brittain and McKinnon combine sociological and theological methodologies to provide both a nuanced portrait of Anglicanism in a transnational age and a primer on the issues with which the Lambeth Conference will wrestle Insightful informative and thought provoking The Anglican Communion at a Crossroads is an invaluable resource for understanding the debates taking place in this worldwide community Those interested in Anglicanism sexuality and the Christian tradition the sociology of religion and the evolving relationship between World Christianity and churches in the Global North will find it indispensable
