Proverbs and conflict management in Africa: A study of selected Yoruba proverbs and proverbial expressions

This paper examines the role of proverbs and their use in conflict management and in enhancing peaceful human co-existence. This is achieved through a content analysis of twenty-four (24) randomly selected Yoruba proverbs, and proverbial expressions, with particular reference to the themes of warning, cooperation, and diversity. The paper argues that proverbs are useful in conflict management, and conflict resolution, and in making people have a peace-loving frame of mind. The paper concludes that proverbs and proverbial expressions are, indeed, vital in relationship management. It avers that anybody with a good understanding of proverbs and their implications for peaceful co-existence would appreciate conflicts as an ineluctable part of existence and harmonious living; and such person(s) would therefore avoid actions and inactions that would promote violence.

Key words: Proverbs, Yoruba, Africa, peace, conflict management, indigenous, conflict resolution

Africa, Conflict, and Language

Presently, the social condition in Africa is fast becoming a Hobbesian state of nature where life is brutish, nasty and short. The reason for this is not far-fetched from value erosion, rampant poverty to lack of visionary leadership which is fast reducing the human condition to that of predatory animals that nature has conditioned to feed and live on one another for survival, leading to an unprecedented loss of lives and properties in Africa. This situation, if not urgently arrested, portends dangerous omen to generations yet unborn.

The prevalence of political violence, insurgencies of diverse magnitude and terrorism in contemporary Africa require urgent and renewed efforts in arresting the gory situation. In fact, there is urgent need to look inward for methods of conflict management to support the commonplace western imported paradigm. The need to 'look inward' becomes vital as the search for lasting peace continues (Ogunmodede 2001). It is within this understanding that scholars have blamed the contemporary African problems, not just on eroded traditional African values and value system but also, on the lack of mastery of language that has resulted in gross misunderstanding, particularly the dearth of practical wisdom embedded in proverbs to address issues in conflict (Adeyemi 2014; Ademowo 2012; Makamuri 2012). The crux of this work lies in taking a new look at indigenous/traditional means of conflict management which are found in proverbial practical wisdom.
