Al Ghazali On The Remembrance Of Death And The Afterlife Book XI Of The Revival Of The Religious Sci:

The Remembrance of Death and the Afterlife Ghazzālī, 2015 This is the first English translation of a key section of al Ghazali's Revival of the Religious Sciences Ihya Ulum al Din widely regarded as the greatest work of Muslim spirituality Its theme is of universal interest death and the life to come After expounding his Sufi philosophy of death and showing the importance of the contemplation of human morality to the mystical way of self purification al Ghazali's takes his readers through the stages of the future life the vision of the Angels of the Grave the Resurrection the Intercession of the Prophets and finally the torments of Hell the delights of Paradise and for the elect the beatific vision of God's Countenance In this new edition the Islamic Texts Society has included a translation of Imam Ghazali's own Introduction to the Revival of the Religious Sciences which gives the reasons that caused him to write the work the structure of the whole of the Revival and places each of the chapters in the context of the others Dreams, Sufism, and Sainthood Jonathan Glustrom Katz, 1996 Based on

Muhammad al Zawwār's extraordinary diary of 109 dream conversations with the Prophet Muhammad this study provides a rare intimate view of 15th century North African Muslim life The study reconstructs Zawwār's life story over a critical ten year period and examines his career as a Sufi in the historical context of North Africa and Mamluk Cairo Psychological aspects of Zawwār's religious experience are thoroughly explored The concluding chapter provides an introduction to the role of dreams and visions in medieval Islam Particular attention is paid to the way Zawwār and his successors used their visions to legitimate claims to being awliya or living saints Al-Ghazali and His Theory of the Soul Noor Shakirah Mat Akhir, 2006 Beyond

Faith: Belief, Morality and Memory in a Fifteenth-Century Judeo-Iberian Manuscript Michelle M.

Hamilton, 2014-11-13 In Beyond Faith: Belief, Morality and Memory in a Fifteenth Century Judeo Iberian Manuscript Michelle M Hamilton sheds light on the concerns of Jewish and converso readers of the generation before the Expulsion Using a mid fifteenth century collection of Iberian vernacular literary philosophical and religious texts MS Parm 2666 recorded in Hebrew characters as a lens Hamilton explores how its compiler or compilers were forging a particular form of personal individual religious belief based not only on the Judeo Andalusí philosophical tradition of medieval Iberia but also on the Latinate humanism of late 14th and early 15th century Europe The forms such expressions take reveal the contingent and specific engagement of learned Iberian Jews and conversos with the larger Iberian European and Arab Mediterranean cultures of the 15th century Relative Strangers Arpan Roy, 2024-11-30 Examining how memory intergenerational transmission and kinship work together Relative Strangers sheds light on Romani life in Palestine Arpan Roy presents an ethnographic portrait of Dom Romani communities living between Palestine and Jordan zooming in on everyday life in working class neighborhoods and under conditions of perpetual war and instability The book focuses on how Doms are able to sustain ethnic difference through kinship even when public performances of difference are no longer emphasized a kind of alterity that is neither visible by obvious markers like race or religious difference nor detected by the antennas of the state Drawing on long term ethnographic fieldwork in Jerusalem Ramallah and Amman Roy makes a case for such alterity for Romani people and other groups in the region Analysing intimate ethnographic scenes through anthropological theories of kinship psychoanalysis social theory from the Global South and more the book reveals how alterity in the Middle East does not adhere to rigid identitarian categories Ultimately Relative Strangers demonstrates the inadequacy of transposing models of pluralism centred on European and American experiences of minoritization onto other contexts

Modern Muslim Theology Martin Nguyen, 2018-08-10 This book aims to bring Muslim theology into the present day Rather than a purely academic pursuit Modern Muslim Theology argues that theology is a creative process and discusses how the Islamic tradition can help contemporary practitioners negotiate their relationships with God with one another and with the rest of creation

The Ends of the Body Suzanne Conklin Akbari, Jill Ross, 2013-01-29 Drawing on Arabic English French Irish Latin and Spanish sources the essays share a focus on the body's productive capacity whether expressed through the flesh's materiality or through its role in performing meaning The collection is divided into four clusters Foundations traces the use of physical remnants of the body in the form of relics or memorial monuments that replicate the form of the body as foundational in communal structures Performing the Body focuses on the ways in which the individual body functions as the medium through which the social body is maintained Bodily Rhetoric explores the poetic linkage of body and meaning and Material Bodies engages with the processes of corporeal being ranging from the energetic flow of humoral liquids to the decay of the flesh Together the essays provide new perspectives on the centrality of the medieval body and underscore the vitality of this rich field of study

Politics of Piety Saba Mahmood, 2011-10-03 Politics of Piety is a groundbreaking analysis of Islamist cultural politics through the ethnography of a thriving grassroots women's piety movement in the mosques of Cairo Egypt Unlike those organized Islamist activities that seek to seize or transform the state this is a moral reform movement whose orthodox practices are commonly viewed as inconsequential to Egypt's political landscape Saba Mahmood's compelling exposition of these practices challenges this assumption by showing how the ethical and the political are indelibly linked within the context of such movements Not only is this book a sensitive ethnography of a critical but largely ignored dimension of the Islamic revival it is also an unflinching critique of the secular liberal assumptions by which some people hold such movements to account The book addresses three central questions How do movements of moral reform help us rethink the normative liberal account of politics How does the adherence of women to the patriarchal norms at the core of such movements parochialize key assumptions within feminist theory about freedom agency authority and the human subject How does a consideration of debates about embodied religious rituals among Islamists and their secular critics help us understand the conceptual relationship between bodily form and political imaginaries Politics of Piety is essential reading for anyone interested in issues at the nexus of ethics and politics embodiment and gender and liberalism and postcolonialism In a substantial new preface Mahmood addresses the controversy sparked by the original publication of her book and the scholarly discussions that have ensued Islam and Science Muzaffar Iqbal, 2018-05-08 This title was first published in 2002 This text seeks to provide the necessary background for understanding the contemporary relationship between Islam and modern science Presenting an authentic discourse on the Islamic understanding of the physical cosmos Muzaffar Iqbal explores God's relationship to the created world and the historical and cultural forces that have shaped and defined Muslim attitudes towards science What was Islamic in the Islamic scientific tradition How was it rooted in the Qur'anic worldview and whatever happened to it These are some of the facets of this account of a tradition that spans eight centuries and covers a vast geographical region Written from within this ground breaking exploration of some of the most fundamental questions in the Islam and science discourse explores the process of appropriation and transformation of the Islamic scientific tradition in Europe during the three centuries leading up to the Scientific revolution British Book News ,1990 Kitāb Dhikr Al-mawt Wa-mā Ba'dah Ghazzālī, T.
