Al Hidayah In Urdu:

Interpretations of Jihad in South Asia Tariq Rahman, 2018-10-08 In the wake of radical Islamist terrorist attacks described as jihad worldwide and in South Asia it is imperative that there should be a book length study of this idea in this part of the world The focus of the study is the idea of jihad with its changing interpretations mostly those available in exegetical literature of key figures in South Asia The hermeneutic devices used to understand the meaning of the Quranic verses and the Prophetic traditions relating to jihad will be the focus of this study The main thrust of the study is to understand how interpretations of jihad vary It is seen as being both defensive and aggressive by traditionalists only defensive and mainly about moral improvement by progressive Muslims and being insurrectionist aggressive eternal and justifying violence against civilians by radical Islamists One purpose of the book is to understand how the radical interpretation came to South Asia The book also explains how theories about jihad are influenced by the political and social circumstances of the period and how these insights feed into practice legitimizing militant movements called jihad for that period

Muslim Endowments and Society in British India Gregory C. Kozlowski, 2008-10-30 Dr Kozlowski's important study pioneers a fresh approach to the study of a critical Muslim institution the endowments or awqaf which almost everywhere in the Islamic world provide support for mosques schools and shrines The wealthier Muslims who establish endowments inevitably have an eye on social political and economic conditions and have traditionally used awqaf as part of an effort to preserve their wealth and influence especially in periods of change and uncertainty The book focuses on the use of endowments by Muslims suffering the dislocations caused by the imposition of British rule in India and examines in detail the social and political implications of the controversy over endowments that took place in the imperial courts and councils The author's observations and insights can be applied to many periods and places in the Muslim world and his novel approach will attract all those interested in the study of Islam

Islamic Financial Contracts Hussain Mohi-ud-Din Qadri, Nasir Iqbal, 2021-06-30 Islam encourages business and financial transactions as a way of securing the basic needs for all human beings but these need to be conducted in accordance with the principles contained in the Qur'an and Sunnah However these legal concepts are not classified subject wise and the verses on commercial law like all other topics are scattered throughout the Qur'an making it difficult for readers to gain a full understanding of the topic. This therefore is the first comprehensive book to demystify Islamic contract law and specifically Islamic financial contracts and to examine its roots and history. The book is written in a clear style to allow for a greater understanding of the more challenging and misunderstood areas pertaining to Islamic business and financial contracts. It also contributes a series of chapters which address the market niche and need concerning Shariah compliance for Islamic financial products and services. The book is divided into 16 chapters in order to provide a holistic and thorough overview of Islamic law of contract. It covers the objections and misconceptions surrounding Islamic business and financial contracts. It also includes the key features and guiding principles of Islamic law of contract and offers technical know-how illustrating the concept of formation of a contract as well as the essential elements of a valid contract. The authors also offer a discussion on the system of options under Islamic business and financial contracts and potential solutions to breach of contracts. The book will serve as a handy reference for scholars and students of Islamic business and finance and Islamic commercial law and will also be beneficial for practitioners as well as legal and judicial officers. It will open new doors for further research in the field of Islamic financial contracts.
