Alexandre Kojève And The Outcome Of Modern Thought:

Alexandre Kojève and the Outcome of Modern Thought F. Roger Devlin, 2004 The brilliant Hegelian philosopher Alexandre Kojève remains among the most enigmatic figures of twentieth century philosophy Although a highly systematic thinker he left no systematic presentation of his thought His most important book deceptively appears to be a mere secondary work on Hegel's Phenomenology of the Spirit most of his nine books and many essays have not even appeared in English This brief lucid study takes the reader to the heart of Kojève's philosophical project The Legacy of Leo Strauss Tony Burns, James Connelly, 2016-12-22 Leo Strauss was a political philosopher who died in 1973 but came to prominent attention in the United States and also Britain around the beginning of the War in Iraq Charges began emerging that architects of the war such as Paul Wolfowitz and large numbers of staff in the US State and Defense Departments had studied with or been influenced by the academic work of Strauss and his followers A vague but powerful idea was generated in the popular press that a group known as the Straussians had been instrumental in the long range strategic planning of American foreign policy both to advance American interests and to encourage democratic revolutions outside the West This volume of essays opens up the topic of Leo Strauss and the Straussians to those outside the relatively narrow circles who have been concerned with him and his followers up to now Childlike Peace in Merleau-Ponty and Levinas Brock Bahler, 2016-08-01 By examining the parent child relationship Childlike Peace in Merleau-Ponty and Levinas argues that the primordial structure of our personal encounters with others should be understood as a dialectical spiral Drawing on the work of twentieth century philosophers Maurice Merleau-Ponty and Emmanuel Levinas and informed by recent advances in cognitive neuroscience and child development Brock Bahler develops a phenomenological description of the parent child relationship in order to articulate an account of intersubjectivity that is fundamentally ethically oriented dialogical and mutually dynamic This dialectical spiral in contrast to Cartesian tradition of the subject and the Hegelian master slave dialectic suggests that our lives are equiprimordially interwoven with both the richness of mutual engagement and the responsibility to be for the other The parent child relationship provides the basis for a theoretical account of intersubjectivity that is marked by a creative interaction between self and other that cannot be reduced to an economic exchange a totalizing structure or a unilateral asymmetrical responsibility In conversation with the philosophical thought of Merleau-Ponty Levinas Hegel Sartre and Freud as well as recent research in cognitive neuroscience and child development this work will be of interest for those working in the fields of continental philosophy embodied cognition philosophy of childhood psychoanalysis psychology philosophy for children P4C and education Abiding Grace Mark C. Taylor, 2018-10-02 Post war post industrialism post religion post truth post biological post human post modern What succeeds the post age Mark C Taylor returns here to some of his central philosophical preoccupations and asks What comes after the end Abiding Grace navigates the competing Hegelian and Kierkegaardian trajectories born out of the Reformation and finds Taylor arguing from spaces in between showing how both narratives have shaped recent philosophy and culture For Hegel Luther's internalization of faith anticipated the modern principle of autonomy which reached its fullest expression in speculative philosophy The closure of the Hegelian system still endures in the twenty first century in consumer society financial capitalism and virtual culture For Kierkegaard by contrast Luther's God remains radically transcendent while finite human beings and their world remain fully dependent From this insight Heidegger and Derrida developed an alternative view of time in which a radically open future breaks into the present to transform the past demonstrating that far from autonomous life is a gift from an Other that can never be known Offering an alternative genealogy of deconstruction that traces its pedigree back to readings of Paul by way of Luther Abiding Grace presents a thoroughgoing critique of modernity and postmodernity's will to power and mastery In this new philosophical and theological vision history is not over and the future remains endlessly open Hegel's

Phenomenology Terry Pinkard, 1996-04-26 This analysis is the most detailed commentary on Hegel's work available and develops an independent philosophical account of the general theory of knowledge culture and history contained in it It reconstructs Hegel's theoretical philosophy and its connection to the ethical and political theory The Social Contract, 2008 Book Review Index Cumulation Dana Ferguson, 2005-09 Book Review Index provides quick access to reviews of books periodicals books on tape and electronic media representing a wide range of popular academic and professional interests The up to date coverage wide scope and inclusion of citations for both newly published and older materials make Book Review Index an exceptionally useful reference tool More than 600 publications are indexed including journals and national general interest publications and newspapers Book Review Index is available in a three issue subscription covering the current year or as an annual cumulation covering the past year The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2005 Phrasis, 2009 A scholarly journal devoted to the study of Dutch French English German Spanish Italian Latin ancient and new Greek and the Scandinavian language and literature Das Ende der Geschichte und der bürgerliche Rechtsstaat Henk de Berg, 2007 Canadian Journal of Political and Social Theory, 1981 Heterology and the Postmodern Julian Pefanis, 1991 In Heterology and the Postmodern Julian Pefanis presents a new view of the history of poststructuralism heterology and the origins of postmodernism by analyzing three important French theorists Georges Bataille Jean Baudrillard and Jean-François Lyotard Beginning with the introduction of Hegel in French postmodernist thought largely but not exclusively through the thought of Georges Bataille Pefanis argues that the core problematics of postmodern aesthetics history exchange representation and writing are related to Bataille's reconceptualization of the Hegelian framework Pefanis explores how Bataille was influenced by Hegel Marcel Mauss Freud and Nietzsche and traces the effects of this influence on the analyses and critiques of later postmodernists most notably Lyotard and Baudrillard Finally employing these postmodernists along with Freud and Jacques Lacan Pefanis discusses discourse on postmodernism and its relation to Freud's concept of the death drive This intellectual history makes valuable contributions to the debates over what the postmodern may mean for intellectual and political activity Collected Works of George Grant George Parkin Grant, 2000 The fourth and final volume of the Collected Works of George Grant contains his writings from the last period of his life and includes unpublished material such as lectures interviews and excerpts from his notebooks The Ennobling of Democracy Thomas L. Pangle, 1992 Pangle believes liberal democracy is in grave danger of losing its way in the tricky Cold War endgame This philosophical discourse rethinks the foundations of democratic society through a dialogue with Locke Kant Jefferson Montesquieu Hume Plato and other seminal figures Diagnosing the disintegration all around us from the classical republican perspective of Aristotle and Socrates Pangle presents prescriptions involving workplace democracy and greater citizen participation in government he espouses policies encouraging the aged to remain employed urges tough minded incentives for hard work as part of welfare programs and advocates civic education as the heart of American public schooling The last chapter defines the goals of higher education in terms of a Socratic dialogue with great books ISBN 0 8018 4262 X 25 95 Total War and 'modernization' Yasushi Yamanouchi, J. Victor Koschmann, Ryūichi Narita, 1998 A product of international collaborative research this collection of essays by scholars from Japan North America and Europe illuminates the many important ways in which mobilization for total war in the 1930s and early 1940s laid the foundation for postwar democracy The essays all but two of which focus primarily on the Japanese case analyze intellectual political and socioeconomic processes that extend from the 1930s down as far as the 1970s and suggest that in this era not only Japan but Germany the U S and other advanced industrial nations formed system societies characterized by rationalization mobilization and high levels of social integration and control Kritika , 2008 Contemporary Art Zentrum für Kunst und Medientechnologie Karlsruhe, Heinrich Klotz, Horst Bredekamp, 1997 The collection held by the ZKM Center for Art and Media Karlsruhe displays works of art ranging from those executed using classical painting techniques to spectacular multimedia installations created by international artists Contemporary Art contrasts the new genre of multimedia art with art in its more traditional forms painting sculpture graphics and photography It puts these new works into the art historical context of the 20th century and explores possible directions for the future BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Political Thinking, Political Theory, and Civil Society Steven M. DeLue, 2002 DeLue Steven M Political Thinking Political Theory and Civil Society 2nd Edition A comprehensive and thoughtful overview of the Western tradition of political thought this book approaches the subject in a way that helps readers develop their own political thinking and critical thinking skills Readers are asked to consider What is the nature of a civil society and why is it important The major writers discussed in the book are read not only with an interest in understanding their views but also an interest in understanding their relationship to the idea of a civil society DeLue contends that a civil society is important for securing the way of life that most of us value and want to preserve a way of life that allows people to place significance on their own lives For those interested in politics and theories The Review of Metaphysics ,1988 After Foucault University of Illinois at Chicago. Institute for the Humanities,1988 The essays in this collection assess the impact of Michel Foucault's work on the conditions of disciplinary knowledge in humanistic studies and speculate on the directions we might take from his work They cover a wide range of fundamental concerns from philosophy of knowledge in both theoretical and applied forms to philology history psychoanalysis feminism and politics Whether the contributors would be counted as being for or against Foucault all of them show that their understanding has been altered by the challenges his work has posed In some cases Foucault's thought is severely criticized as an obstacle to effective understanding or action in others his thought offers a resource through which received opinion can be displayed
