Expert Blogging Tips For Beginners Guide For Teachers:

The Online Teaching Survival Guide Judith V. Boettcher, Rita-Marie Conrad, 2010-05-13 The Online Teaching Survival Guide offers faculty a wide array of theory based techniques designed for online teaching and technology enhanced courses. Written by two pioneers in distance education this guidebook presents practical instructional strategies spread out over a four phase timeline that covers the lifespan of a course. The book includes information on a range of topics such as course management, social presence, community building and assessment. Based on traditional pedagogical theory, The Online Teaching Survival Guide integrates the latest research in cognitive processing and learning outcomes. Faculty with little knowledge of educational theory and those well versed in pedagogy will find this resource essential for developing their online teaching skills. Praise for The Online Teaching Survival Guide: At a time when resources for training faculty to teach online are scarce, Judith Boettcher and Rita Marie Conrad have presented a must read for all instructors new to online teaching. By tying best practices to the natural rhythms of a course as it unfolds, instructors will know what to do when and what to expect. The book is a life raft in what can be perceived as turbulent and uncharted waters. Rena M Palloff and Keith Pratt, program directors and faculty, Teaching in the Virtual Classroom Program, Fielding Graduate University. Developed from years of experience supporting online faculty, Judith Boettcher and Rita Marie Conrad's book provides practical tips and checklists that should especially help those new to online teaching hit the ground running. Karen Swan Stukel, Distinguished Professor of Educational Leadership, University of Illinois Springfield. This book blends a fine synthesis of research findings with plenty of practical advice. This book should be especially valuable for faculty teaching their first or second course online. But any instructor, no matter how experienced, is likely to find valuable insights and techniques. Stephen C Ehrmann, director, Flashlight Program for the Study and Improvement of Educational Uses of Technology, vice president, The Teaching, Learning and Technology Group. The 30 Goals Challenge for Teachers Shelly Sanchez Terrell, 2014-12-03 How does a teacher know whether he or she is benefitting learners? What do educators do when they have questions about the best way to integrate new technologies into their classrooms? What should a teacher do to avoid burnout? Who will mentor the teacher who takes on these questions? The 30 Goals Challenge for Teachers takes you on a personal journey to accomplish manageable goals, reflect on your experiences and regain your spark and confidence in teaching. This innovative approach will help you reconnect to your students, improve your classroom practice and help you transform as an educator. To ensure your success and growth, you will find 30 short term goals to complete at your own pace, 30 long term goals that relate to the short term goals. Exercises throughout to help you consider each goal. Examples of how the goal has been accomplished in different teaching contexts. Tips for the successful completion of the goals. Reflection areas to document the result of accomplishing the goal. A resource list with free web tools and apps related to the goal's task. How To Make Money Online Fernando Raymond, Manuela Willbold, At ClickDo Ltd, a digital marketing SEO agency in London, the authors do what they love every
