The Future of Syntax Jieun Kiaer, 2023-12-14 Proposing a new approach to the study of language this book argues for the need to consider syntax in context and to engage with a wider variety of perspectives that better reflect the modern world and the changes to our language prompted by increased cultural diversity the prevalence of social media AI and more Referencing big data and drawing on a corpus of linguistic research the book explores in particular the socio pragmatic sensitivity and complexity within East Asian languages including Chinese Japanese and Korean offering new insights that step away from traditional approaches to formal syntax In tracing the history of syntactic theory it highlights the shifts in our communication as we adapt to technological developments and focuses in particular on the significant advances in AI Arguing that traditional syntactic theory is no longer in keeping with real life communication Jieun Kiaer scrutinises current approaches and raises key questions about the need for a more appropriate grammar better suited to the diversity of human language Escape Emerald 2 Bill H.
