

A woman with long dark hair is sitting at a white desk, smiling while working on a pink laptop. In the background, there is a wooden desk with a red coffee machine, a red mug, a glass, and a framed picture. A colorful string of paper flags hangs on the wall to the left. A large, cylindrical, textured lamp hangs from the ceiling.

Women's Career Development in Virtual Remote Work Environments Claretha Hughes, 2025-03-25 This book examines the challenges and opportunities that women face with their career development aspirations while participating in virtual remote VR work The historical workplace disparities experienced by women such as pay gaps and underrepresentation in leadership have been exacerbated by the pandemic Already penalized for motherhood the ability to work virtually and remotely offered an opportunity to democratize the workplace giving women greater flexibility in managing their non work responsibilities while fulfilling their work obligation Nevertheless VR work also has a tendency to make women more invisible and therefore less likely to have networking opportunities and more likely to be overlooked for promotions The author explores these challenges and opportunities faced by women in the era of VR work and addresses some human resource development HRD issues that contribute to the talent retention of VR women workers and offers models theories and frameworks to examine the challenges and opportunities women encounter in VR work environments This book will appeal to HR scholar and scholar practitioners interested in the ongoing hurdles confronting women in the professional sphere despite the new opportunities presented through VR work It also appeals to gender studies scholars who are interested in VR work s effect on women

The Mother in Psychoanalysis and Beyond Rosalind Mayo, Christina Moutsou, 2016-10-04 The question of what it means to be a mother is a very contentious topic in psychoanalysis and in wider society The Mother in Psychoanalysis and Beyond explores our relationship to the maternal through psychoanalysis philosophy art and political and gender studies Over two years a group of psychotherapists and members of the public met at the Philadelphia Association for a series of seminars on the Maternal In the discussions that followed a chasm opened up slowly and painfully between the idealised longings and fantasies we all share and the realities of maternal experiences here were met the great silences of love loss longing memories desire hatred and ambivalence This book is the result of this bringing together in conversation and reflections of what so often seems unsayable about the Mother It examines how issues of personal and gender identity are shaped by the ideals of separation from the mother the fears and anxiety of merging with the mother and how this has often led in psychoanalysis and society to holding mothers responsible for a variety of personal and social ills and problems in which maternal vulnerability is denied and silenced There are two main themes running throughout the book Matricide and Maternal Subjectivity On the theme of matricide several contributors discuss the ways in which the discourse and narratives of the Mother have been silenced on a sociocultural level and within psychoanalysis and philosophy in favour of discourses that promote independence autonomy power and the avoidance and denial of our fundamental helplessness and vulnerability On the theme of maternal subjectivity several chapters look at the actual experience of mothering and or our relationship to our mother to highlight the ways in which the maternal is intimately connected with human subjectivity The Mother in Psychoanalysis and Beyond provides new and provocative thinking about the maternal and its place in various contemporary discourses It will appeal to psychoanalysts psychotherapists and psychologists of different schools scholars and advanced students of art gender studies politics and philosophy as well as anyone interested in maternity studies and the relationship between the maternal and human subjectivity

Multidisciplinary Approach to Diversity and Inclusion in the COVID-19-Era Workplace Hynes, Rilla, Aquino, Carlos Tasso, Hauer, Josephine, 2022-02-25 Empathy diversity inclusion and soft skills are key building blocks of an innovative workforce challenged to respond to the ever growing needs of the COVID 19 era Organizations that value diversity and inclusion are looking for ways to manage the shift of workers and skills from traditional manufacturing to the 21st century vision by incorporating new technology and tools In this new model a diverse workforce is necessary as creativity and innovation grow from the skills that differentiate humans Further research into the next steps for using diversity and inclusion in an efficient manner discovering and training new skill sets and building sustainability into the creative process is needed to fully embrace this new era of inclusion Multidisciplinary Approach to Diversity and Inclusion in the COVID 19 Era Workplace highlights best practices of successful companies in the new normal conditions caused by the pandemic and provides innovative research on diversity and inclusion to help organizations navigate the changing competitive global environment Covering a range of topics such as remote work unconscious bias and information literacy it is ideal for professors researchers academicians practitioners human resource professionals industry professionals and students
