Branding that Means Business Matt Johnson, Tessa G Misiaszek, 2022-10-25 A revelatory guide on how to build sustain and grow a brand A brand is either beloved or it s noise We live in a fast paced world of immediate gratification where consumers can listen to any song watch any movie or read any article with the touch of a few buttons They are peppered with hyper personalized targeting for products that can be ordered seamlessly and arrive within hours And if your brand isn t the first to come to mind they ll click that button and it ll be delivered by someone else So how do you make sure your brand connects with consumers Branding that Means Business draws from the authors experience and business literature as well as psychology sociology and even anthropology to show readers that while any brand serves the business the mechanisms that enable it are all about connecting with people Readers will learn how to create maintain and operationalize their brand and think creatively about how to differentiate their product and most importantly make consumers fall in love with it

Participatory Journalism Jane B. Singer, David Domingo, Ari Heinonen, Alfred Hermida, Steve Paulussen, Thorsten Quandt, Zvi Reich, Marina Vujnovic, 2011-05-06 Who makes the news in a digital age Participatory Journalism offers fascinating insights into how journalists in Western democracies are thinking about and dealing with the inclusion of content produced and published by the public A timely look at digital news the changes it is bringing for journalists and an industry in crisis Original data throughout in the form of in depth interviews with dozens of journalists at leading news organizations in ten Western democracies Provides a unique model of the news making process and its openness to user participation in five stages Gives a first hand look at the workings and challenges of online journalism on a global scale through data that has been seamlessly combined so that each chapter presents the views of journalists in many nations highlighting both similarities and differences both national and individual

Reporting Humanitarian Disasters in a Social Media Age

Glenda Cooper, 2018-10-26 From the tsunami to Hurricane Sandy the Nepal earthquake to Syrian refugees defining images and accounts of humanitarian crises are now often created not by journalists but by ordinary citizens using Twitter Facebook YouTube Instagram and Snapchat But how has the use of this content and the way it is spread by social media altered the rituals around disaster reporting the close if not symbiotic relationship between journalists and aid agencies and the kind of crises that are covered Drawing on more than 100 in depth interviews with journalists and aid agency press officers participant observations at the Guardian BBC and Save the Children UK as well as the ordinary people who created the words and pictures that framed these disasters this book reveals how humanitarian disasters are covered in the 21st century and the potential consequences for those who posted a tweet a video or photo without ever realising how far it would go
