Why Workplace Wellbeing Matters Jan-Emmanuel De Neve, George Ward, 2025-03-25 The definitive account of workplace wellbeing and its key drivers offering a fresh data driven perspective on the connections between happiness productivity and organizational success Most of us spend a third of our waking lives at work Work shapes our schedules relationships identities and economies but is it actually making us happy This crucial question is explored in depth by leading Oxford researchers Jan Emmanuel De Neve and George Ward who provide the richest most comprehensive picture of workplace wellbeing yet In Why Workplace Wellbeing Matters the authors clarify what workplace wellbeing is and is not and offer a framework for how businesses can approach and improve it Drawing on extensive large scale data including the world's largest data set on employee wellbeing gathered in partnership with the jobs platform Indeed the book reveals the remarkable ways in which wellbeing at work varies across workers occupations companies and industries The authors present new evidence based insights into the origins of workplace wellbeing and how businesses can enhance the employee experience Integrating work from multiple academic disciplines they show that workplace wellbeing encompasses both how we think about our work as a whole and how we feel while doing it Their research demonstrates that improving wellbeing can boost productivity aid in talent retention and recruitment and ultimately improve financial performance With in depth analysis and keen insight De Neve and Ward debunk myths and test assumptions amid an often confusing cacophony of voices on wellbeing at work Why Workplace Wellbeing Matters provides a firm foundation and indispensable resource for leaders seeking to shape the future of work

Global Voice #21 Council on Business & Society, Welcome to Global Voice magazine 21 Out of the Tin Can This spring issue of the Council on Business Society's quarterly magazine contains 96 pages of research and opinion based articles featured in two sections Business Society and Leadership Management We're delighted to include a special double page dedicated to two new CoBS Deans Dean Lee Newman and Dean Yu Sakasume having respectively taken up their functions at leading member institutions IE Business School Spain and Keio Business School Japan This issue's Editorial also features a spotlight on the unique value case studies bring to the learning experience co authored by Richard McCracken Director of The Case Centre the world's leading independent home of the case method and Prof Adrian Zicari of the Council on Business Society A wry and playful glance at business buzz words and maybe even the state of our hectic modern society is included in our double page cartoon penned by Tom Gamble of the CoBS and illustrated by Matthieu Anziani of ESSEC Business School And as usual hats off to the superb Global Voice graphic design by CoBS Head of Design M lissa Guillou Faculty practitioner and student articles provide the bread and butter of this issue with topics covering big data and customer value how to manage remote working designing mentorship programmes TechForGood greening up supply chains with circular economy strategy non financial social and environmental disclosure and a spotlight on smart cities in Japan among others And lastly you may ask why this issue carries the subtitle Out of the Tin

Can The temptation is to say that it s up to you to interpret it for there are many interpretations possible Some of these might point to the David Bowie classic Space Oddity and the fact that at last many of us in our societies are once again able to step out of the confinement imposed by the pandemic to breath freely again Another interpretation hand in hand with the snappy front cover image might refer to Andy Warhol s iconic pop art consumerism or simply the tastiness of the contents the tin cans hold a little like the insights in this magazine if I dare say And lastly the shades of green to the cans give the message that our consuming society might well contain a new and more responsible sustainable taste to it In any case we hope you download this Global Voice 21 issue open it up and consume its insights with immoderation Enjoy your reading
