Man vs. machine: Experimental evidence on the quality and perceptions of AI-generated research content Keenan, Michael, Koo, Jawoo, Mwangi, Christine, Karachiwalla, Naureen, Breisinger, Clemens, Kim, MinAh, 2025-02-24 Academic researchers want their research to be understood and used by non technical audiences but that requires communication that is more accessible in the form of non technical and shorter summaries The researcher must both signal the quality of the research and ensure that the content is salient by making it more readable AI tools can improve salience however they can also lead to ambiguity in the signal since true effort is then difficult to observe We implement an online factorial experiment providing non technical audiences with a blog on an academic paper and vary the actual author of the blog from the same paper human or ChatGPT and whether respondents are told the blog is written by a human or AI tool Even though AI generated blogs are objectively of higher quality they are rated lower but not if the author is disclosed as AI indicating that signaling is important and can be distorted by AI Use of the blog does not vary by experimental arm The findings suggest that provided disclosure statements are included researchers can potentially use AI to reduce effort costs without compromising signaling or salience Academic researchers want their research to be understood and used by non technical audiences but that requires communication that is more accessible in the form of non technical and shorter summaries The researcher must both signal the quality of the research and ensure that the content is salient by making it more readable AI tools can improve salience however they can also lead to ambiguity in the signal since true effort is then difficult to observe We implement an online factorial experiment providing non technical audiences with a blog on an academic paper and vary the actual author of the blog from the same paper human or ChatGPT and whether respondents are told the blog is written by a human or AI tool Even though AI generated blogs are objectively of higher quality they are rated lower but not if the author is disclosed as AI indicating that signaling is important and can be distorted by AI Use of the blog does not vary by experimental arm The findings suggest that provided disclosure statements are included researchers can potentially use AI to reduce effort costs without compromising signaling or salience

Mind-Reading and Artificial Intelligence: Past, Present and Future Prof. (Dr.) Jai Paul Dudeja, 2024-10-30 Mind reading typically refers to the ability of discerning or interpreting someone else's thoughts feelings or intentions Mind Reading has two components human based and ii device based artificial intelligence Artificial Intelligence AI refers to programming computers to do tasks that normally require human intelligence like learning problem solving and understanding language It is like giving computers the ability to think and make decisions on their own similar to how humans do AI helps machines learn from data adapt to new situations and perform tasks without being explicitly programmed for each step This book covers the topics on human based and device based mind reading and interpretation artificial intelligence that is divided into 32 chapters and the following 8 sections i Mind Reading and Artificial Intelligence Introduction and Overview ii Human Based Mind Reading iii Artificial Intelligence Introduction Types of Learning iv Device Based Mind Reading And Virtual Assistants v Applications and Opportunities of Artificial Intelligence vi Artificial Intelligence Ethical Issues Risks and Regulations vii Artificial Consciousness and viii Artificial Intelligence in India Status and the Way Forward Mastering AI Jeremy Kahn, 2024-08-01 An urgent book on generative artificial intelligence exploring the risk and benefits looming in this seminal moment Easily the best exploration to date on the perils and promise of AI ASHLEE VANCE author of When the Heavens Went on Sale Mastering AI is a must read It's hard to put down BETHANY McLEAN coauthor of The Smartest Guys in the Room and The Big Fail A timely and urgent exploration of AI's dizzying acceleration BRAD STONE author of The Everything Store The debut of ChatGPT on November 30th was a watershed moment in the history of technology We stand on the threshold of a new age one where content of all kinds even software itself will be conjured seemingly from thin air with simple conversation In a culture fraught with misinformation Mastering AI pierces through the thicket of exaggerated claims explaining how we arrived at this moment and mapping the likely long term impacts on business economics culture and society this potent technology will have This book will serve as a guide to those dangers as well as highlighting the technology s transformative potential and will pinpoint concrete steps that should be taken to regulate generative AI

More Everything Forever Adam Becker,2025-04-22 This wild and utterly engaging narrative Melanie Mitchell shows why Silicon Valley s heartless baseless and foolish obsessions with escaping death building AI tyrants and creating limitless growth are about oligarchic power not preparing for the future Tech billionaires have decided that they should determine our futures for us According to Elon Musk Jeff Bezos Sam Altman and more the only good future for humanity is one powered by technology trillions of humans living in space functionally immortal served by superintelligent AIs In More Everything Forever science journalist Adam Becker investigates these wildly implausible and often profoundly immoral visions of tomorrow and shows why in reality there is no good evidence that they will or should come to pass Nevertheless these obsessions fuel fears that overwhelm reason for example that a rogue AI will exterminate humanity at the expense of essential work on solving crucial problems like climate change What s more these futuristic visions cloak a hunger for power under dreams of space colonies and digital immortality The giants of Silicon Valley claim that their ideas are based on science but the reality is darker they come from a jumbled mix of shallow futurism and racist pseudoscience More Everything Forever exposes the powerful and sinister ideas that dominate Silicon Valley challenging us to see how foolish and dangerous these visions of the future are
