New Frontiers in Marine Tourism Brian Garrod, Stefan Gossling, 2007-08-31 New Frontiers in Marine Tourism is the first book of this kind to address and analyse this burgeoning tourism sector comprehensively. By integrating aspects such as the sustainability, safety, education, experiences, and management of diving tourism, the text highlights a variety of pressing topics related to the management of diving tourism, including different types of diving locations and their particular characteristics and the geographical distribution of dive locations, the growth and economic significance of diving tourism in destinations worldwide, different motivations and typologies of diving tourists, their learning behaviour, knowledge of marine environments, and their interaction with flora and fauna, diver satisfaction, attitudes and preferences, education and interpretation, and compliance with regulations, environmental impacts, and aspects of risk and health.

Remote Work, Internal Marketing and Human Resource Management Teena Mishra, 2024-12-02 Remote working is a developing idea that many organizations are embracing, especially in light of COVID-19 and the rise in demand for remote and hybrid roles. As there is no standard model to use for implementation, a number of problems and difficulties develop as popularity increases, and hybrid working environments become normalized. This book presents the views, opinions, and reality of remote work and creating an appropriate internal marketing culture in a remote environment. The key topics explored are the significance of remote work, remote work practice, reshaping the work environment, designing remote work models of remote work, challenges of remote work facing business organizations, remote work management innovations and technology, the role of motivation and satisfaction in organizational development, employee empowerment in a remote setting, transparency and commitment for sustainable development, and the future of remote work. This research volume will be of value to researchers, academicians, practitioners, and students in the fields of human resource management, organizational studies, and innovation management.
