A Thousand Tips for Dads Shad Foust, 2014-07-13 This is a list of a thousand tips and bits of advice for fathers I am a father of two sons one is 19 the other is 7 I was a single father throughout my first son's life until I met my wife. I've been a stay at home dad since the little guy was born as well as home schooling him for kindergarten and first grade. Most of my tips are common sense. Have patience and then when you have none left somehow have more patience. Don't just tell them you love them constantly show your children and your partner how much you do. Action always speaks louder than words. Teach your children don't leave it up to babysitters and schools to do it. Be the parent be the grown up. Sometimes it's a difficult messy job but it's yours not theirs. Keep family at the center of everything closely surrounded by friends. There is never a reason to be bored. That includes yourself. Show respect give respect teach respect. Have fun. Try to remember what it was like to be their age and commit to imagination right along side them. Take care of yourself set good examples of healthy living. Instill that in your children. Practice unconditional love and awareness in your daily lives as a family. This is my very honest humorous and straight forward guide to help out any dad looking for answers or a heads up to the many questions that come along with having children. I have learned a tremendous amount about being a good father and husband and how to be a good man in general along the way. As well as a million other things I never even thought I'd want or need to know. There is no doubt that raising children is a serious tremendous and important job. But it is also filled with more joy and laughter and excitement than anything else I have ever done or come across. Enjoy and Happy Fathering.
