How Do I Hybrid Work Schedule For Beginners For Students:

Creating Experiential Learning Opportunities for Language Learners Melanie Bloom, Carolyn

Gascoigne, 2017-03-08 While much research has been done on experiential learning opportunities in study abroad settings there are fewer publications devoted to experiential learning in the domestic context This volume aims to fill that gap by providing a collection of chapters highlighting research based innovations in experiential learning in domestic settings The book focuses on three experiential learning contexts community engagement experiences professional engagement experiences and other unique experiential contexts such as language camps and houses The collection focuses on the US context but the research projects and curricular innovations described here can serve as models for educators working in other local contexts and will encourage interested practitioners to explore experiential learning opportunities in their local areas It will also provide the reader with a better understanding of this growing field of inquiry and should appeal to graduate students and researchers who are interested in experiential language learning

Fostering Sustained Student-Faculty Engagement in Undergraduate Education Tieniell L. Trolan, Eugene T. Parker, III., 2023-12-19 As higher education contexts change with shifts in student demographics additional emphasis on institutional accountability and new classroom and program modalities faculty continue to play an important role in fostering student success through their interactions with students Fostering Sustained Student Faculty Engagement in Undergraduate Education explores how these shifts in college and university environments affect undergraduate student faculty interactions and engagement The edited text focuses on how higher education scholars faculty and leaders might reconsider and rethink undergraduate student faculty experiences for present day higher education both inside and outside of the classroom Additionally the volume challenges existing notions of student faculty interaction focusing instead on improving the quality of interactions and fostering sustained mentoring relationships for important populations of students ultimately considering how student faculty engagement can contribute to student learning and success in higher education A timely book Fostering Sustained Student Faculty Engagement in Undergraduate Education offers practicable recommendations for higher education faculty student affairs staff faculty development professionals and college and university leaders for fostering effectual student faculty experiences

Disrupting the Center Rebecca Hallman Martini, 2022-04-15 Strategic partnership offers writing centers a framework for responding to disruptive innovations in higher education Through partnership writing centers can simultaneously secure resources and support the practice of tutoring writing in ways that enable moments of resistance where writing consultants and students can tactically challenge the corporate university through their methods of practice Disrupting the Center explicates analyzes and critiques one particular writing center's partnership approach to collaboration with disciplinary faculty and upper administrators across the curriculum Using on site research and critical ethnographic study from one university writing center Rebecca Hallman Martini establishes an innovative cross disciplinary partnership approach to writing instruction in which peer tutoring plays an integral curricular role Case studies detail three partnerships that respond directly to existing or potential disruptive innovations in higher education and showcase important concepts mapping mutual benefit and stakeholder engagement in an online studio hybrid first year writing program partnership in response to online education creating negotiated space to work through ethical issues involved when working with a public private partnership to develop a required extracurricular portfolio project in a business school and building transformational partnerships through establishing a writing in the professions curriculum in the College of Engineering in response to career readiness initiatives Disrupting the Center uses interviews observations focus groups analysis of consultations meetings and shared documents such as annual reports budgets assessment data assignments and syllabi to generate a wide view of how systems work Writing centers are flexible university wide service spaces where students go for one on one and group writing support that can become dynamic spaces for writing pedagogy by disrupting revitalizing and reinventing the epistemic foundations of current rhetoric and composition landscapes and traditional approaches to writing

How Scholars Trumped Teachers Larry Cuban,1999-01-01 Examining a century of university history Larry Cuban tackles the age old question What is more important teaching or research Using two departments history and medicine at Stanford University as a case study Cuban shows how universities have organizationally and politically subordinated teaching to research for over one hundred years He explains how university reforms decade after decade not only failed to dislodge the primacy of research but actually served to strengthen it He examines the academic work of research and teaching to determine how each has influenced university structures and processes including curricular reform Can the dilemma of scholars vs teachers ever be fully reconciled This fascinating historical journey is a must read for all university administrators faculty researchers and anyone concerned with educational reform
