Kids in Cages Emily Ruehs-Navarro, Lina Caswell Muñoz, Sarah Diaz, 2024-11-05 This book provides an interdisciplinary perspective of child migrant detention by bringing together voices from the legal realm the academic world and the on the ground experiences of activists and practitioners The chapters explore the harms of detention while also looking at survival in and resistance to this violent institution

Issues and Challenges of Immigration in Early Childhood in the USA Wilma Robles-Melendez, Wayne Driscoll, 2020-10-15 Based on new research this book offers insights into the reality of immigration and its sociocultural impact with a focus on the experience of young children and their families coming to the USA Wilma Robles Melendez and Wayne Driscoll discuss immigration realities and their social and educational implications and review the current literature on studies and reports about immigration They also provide insights and experiences of young immigrant children and their families with a focus on the USA and offer recommendations for early childhood practice for programs serving young immigrant children The key subjects addressed include socially just practices developmentally based programs services for young children and families with diverse and cultural backgrounds Immigration in the USA is discussed here as part of the global crisis in immigration and the lessons learned will be vital for educators researchers and policy makers around the world

Who Cares for our Children? Valerie Polakow, 2007 Valerie Polakow spent a year traveling around the country listening to low income women from diverse backgrounds tell their stories of struggle resilience distress and occasional success as they encountered ongoing child care crises The resulting work is both a compelling account of the lived realities of the child care crisis and an incisive critique of public policy that points to the United States as an outlier in the international community Drawing on historical and international perspectives Polakow creates a groundbreaking analysis of child care as a human right persuasively arguing for a universal child care system Who Cares for Our Children is one of the most disturbing books I have read in a long time It should have a major impact on debates over poverty and social policy From the Foreword by Barbara Ehrenreich author of Nickel and Dimed In this beautifully written and provocative volume Polakow deftly steps aside and lets real mothers struggling against the odds to keep their families safe and sound speak for themselves about what they need This book delivers a timely message Child care should be viewed as a human right Martha F Davis Northeastern University School of Law A collection of moving and often chilling personal narratives Who Cares for Our Children is a powerful and well documented analysis of the worlds of low income families Beth Blue Swadener Arizona State University Thoroughly researched and grounded in a heartfelt sympathy for the struggles of families that face such painful choices and dilemmas in meeting the needs of their children James Garbarino Loyola University Chicago

Children in Immigrant Families Chart New Path Mark Mather, 2009 The more than 16 million children in immigrant families defined as people under age 18 who are foreign born or who live with at least one foreign born parent are the fastest growing segment of America's youth and are leading a racial ethnic transformation of the U S population This report looks at these children where they live and how they are faring socioeconomically The parents status is key to their children s well being especially their English language skills educational levels and immigration history But outside factors including the public debate about immigration laws and policies also affect children in immigrant families Book jacket
