Interpretation Of Laws Act Chapter 1 Tanzania :

Administrative Law in Tanzania. A Digest of Cases D. Chipeta, 2009-10-15 Administrative law may best be defined by describing what it encompasses it is that branch of law which deals with the individual versus governmental or administrative power It covers court restraint of actions or inactions of public institutions administrative processes of central and local government parliamentary and subordinate legislation and the means and procedures by which the rights of individuals are protected against abuse of power by public or local authorities public corporations tribunals and other bodies which discharge functions of public nature entrusted to them by law for the benefit of the citizen It is hoped that this book will act as a wake up call to all those who have been entrusted with the duty of making decisions affecting the rights of citizens to update themselves so as to discharge their duties correctly and in spirit of good governance Administrative Law in Tanzania A Digest of Cases covers high profile and landmark cases in topical areas of constitutional and administrative law from colonial days to present time names procedures in applying for prerogative remedies constitutional principles and human rights separation of powers between the Executive the Legislature and the Judicature natural justice and the rule of law statutory ouster of jurisdiction of courts and the right to legal representation ICT Law Book Adam J. Mambi, 2010 This volume collects notable writings of Barnabas A Samatta Chief Justice of Tanzania from 2000 to his retirement in 2007 together with writings by others that document his career and show the judgment of his peers about his work on the Court of Appeal of Tanzania The writings include Samatta's thoughts on Tanzania's constitutional order and the importance of the rule of law as well as a number of key rulings and judgments Annotation 2011 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews.com

Women, Land and Justice in Tanzania Helen Dancer, 2015 Recent decades have seen a wave of land law reforms across Africa in the context of a land rush and land grabbing But how has this been enacted on the ground and in particular how have women experienced this This book seeks to re-orientate current debates on women's land rights towards a focus on the law in action Centring on cases involving women litigants the book considers the extent to which women are realising their interests in land through land courts and follows the progression of women's claims to land from their social origins through processes of dispute resolution to judgment Unedited summary from book cover Human Trafficking Under International and Tanzanian Law Nicksoni Filbert Kahimba, 2021-03-13 This book deals with the problem of human trafficking in Tanzania in the light of international law and considers human trafficking as both a criminal offence in Tanzania and a human rights violation within international law in general The book broadens the reader's understanding of the subject of human trafficking and Tanzania's legal approach to the issue and allows the reader to grasp Tanzania's anti-trafficking piecemeal efforts from the 1970s onwards the reasons that made Tanzania ratify the Protocol to Prevent Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons Especially Women and Children supplementing the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime and Tanzania's National Assembly's deliberations regarding the enactment of the Anti Trafficking in Persons Act of 2008 and the impact those deliberations have had on the current legal framework of Tanzania It provides a firsthand critical analysis of the Tanzania anti trafficking law pointing out its strengths weaknesses and areas for improvement in a comprehensive manner such as has never been attempted before The book shares many tips and even insights on how to read and apply Tanzania s 2015 Anti Trafficking Regulations in relation to the main law harmoniously It also offers complete instructions for common law practitioners court personnel researchers and other anti trafficking personnel on how to investigate and prosecute human trafficking prevent trafficking both lawfully and from occurring as well as assist victims of human trafficking and protect their human rights Nicksoni Filbert Kahimba is a doctoral researcher in the Faculty of Law of the Humboldt Universit t zu Berlin in Berlin Germany The author also lectures at the School of Law of the University of Dar es Salaam in Tanzania Specific to this book Contains the only up to date critical analysis of the Tanzanian anti trafficking law in light of international law Equips common law practitioners court personnel researchers and other anti trafficking personnel with basic principles on how to combat human trafficking effectively while also protecting the victims thereof Simplifies a complicated picture of human trafficking and its myriad aspects in respect to the Tanzanian anti trafficking legal and institutional framework This is Volume 27 in the International Criminal Justice Series Resuscitation of African Languages Isaac Mhute,Zilibele Mtumane,Vimbai Moreblessing Matiza,2025-03-15 This book argues the case for indigenous African languages which have been stripped of their importance and are now often overshadowed both officially through governmental language policies and informally through attitudes and ideologies by former colonial languages The authors present case studies from a range of countries in the region arguing that languages tell us peoples identities and that by dropping their own languages in favour of foreign and imperialist languages they lose their culture history and identity as well The book addresses many of the challenges currently associated with African languages with the intention of influencing policy and practice in favour of their resuscitation This book will be of interest to policy makers academics and tertiary students in fields including Language Policy and Planning Language Revitalisation Heritage Language Learning Indigenous and Endangered Languages and Language Attitudes and Ideologies The Revised Laws of Tanzania Tanzania,1959

Electronic Transactions and the Law of Evidence in Tanzania Andrew Mollel,2007 The Impact of Tanzania's New Land Laws on the Customary Land Rights of Pastoralists Kennedy Gastorn,2008 This book investigates the effects of the 1999 Tanzanian land legislation on customary land tenure particularly that of pastoralists It is an original empirical and theoretical critical study of the laws and their implementation in securing land tenure of customary landholders in the face of the changing social political structures and as such constitutes a contribution to the current debate about the future of customary landholders in the reformed Tanzanian economy Among issues that receive particular attention in this study are the development of pastoral land tenure the main features of the new land laws introduced land schemes for pastoralists land dispute mechanisms the certification of village lands investments on village land the inclusion of unused or unoccupied

Transfers of Rights of Occupancy Zebron Steven Gondwe,2001 In Tanzania transfers of rights of occupancy frequently encounter procedural problems and as regards land transfers existing legal structures are inadequate Case law in this area remains insufficiently documented is contradictory and there is a dearth of adequate information to guide practitioners through existing precedents By way of response to these limitations this manual addresses aspects of procedures involved in land transfer It sets out the governing laws and summarises principles governing the acquisition and transfer of rights of occupancy and regulating land ownership in Tanzania It covers acquisition of public land by individuals and institutions and the rights and duties of parties between date of contract and date of completion and the author makes reference to the new 1999 Village Land and Land Acts He provides a checklist of the steps constituting a transfer and in a series of annexes presents in detail the relevant statutory provisions specimen forms scales of duties and fees payable Issa Shivji renowned
