Nichols,2010-01-28 In what ways do films influence and interact with society What social forces determine the kinds of movies that get made How do movies reinforce and sometimes overturn social norms As societies evolve do the films that were once considered great slip into obscurity Which ones Why These questions and many others like them represent the mainstream of scholarly film studies today In Engaging Cinema Bill Nichols offers the first book for introductory film students that tackles these topics head on Published in a handy trade paperback format Engaging Cinema is inexpensive and utterly unique in the field a perfect complement to or replacement for standard film texts Cine-Ethics Jinhee Choi, Mattias Frey, 2013-10-15 This volume looks at the significance and range of ethical questions that pertain to various film practices Diverse philosophical traditions provide useful frameworks to discuss spectators affective and emotional engagement with film which can function as a moral ground for one's connection to others and to the world outside the self These traditions encompass theories of emotion phenomenology the philosophy of compassion and analytic and continental ethical thinking and environmental ethics This anthology is one of the first volumes to open up a dialogue among these diverse methodologies Contributors bring to the fore some of the assumptions implicitly shared between these theories and forge a new relationship between them in order to explore the moral engagement of the spectator and the ethical consequences of both producing and consuming films

Trans Narratives Ana Horvat, Orly Lael Netzer, Sarah McRae, Julie Rak, 2021-09-30 Recently trans has taken on a number of important theoretical and critical meanings inside and outside the academy As a prefix trans can attach itself to other words to express or describe movement and change as it does in the terms transnational or transmedia Trans is also an adjective when it is part of a word that signifies an identity or expression Trans has worked as an adjective to destabilize established ideas about gender as it makes new senses of what gender can mean for trans people Much of the study of life writing is about the study of identity and the possibilities for lives that stories of identity make possible In that spirit Trans Narratives trans transmedia transnational represents an opportunity for critical work about life writing by trans people to be featured as it seeks to interrogate the idea of trans in multiple registers bringing a prefix to the center of the current field of life writing studies It aims to understand through life writing and its theory what trans means when we talk about identities and bodies and to understand better what the critical terms transmedia and transnational can mean for the field of life writing The Chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of a Auto Biography Studies International Documentary , 2004

Collecting Visible Evidence Jane Gaines, Michael Renov, 1999 In documentary studies the old distinctions between fiction and nonfiction no longer apply as contemporary film and video artists produce works that defy classification Coming together to make sense of these developments the contributors to this book effectively redefine documentary studies They trace the documentary impulse in the early detective camera in the reenactment of battle scenes from World War I and in the telecast of the Nevada A bomb test in 1952 Other topics include experiments in virtual reality the crisis of representation in anthropology and video art and documentary work that challenge the asymmetry of the postcolonial us them divide Book jacket

Ireland and Dysfunction Asier Altuna-García de Salazar, 2017-01-06 This collection of critical essays finds itself at the intersection of cultural literary and film studies and explores the various ways in which dysfunction is expressed in Irish studies Dysfunction can be regarded as part and parcel of a portrayal of a landscape of trauma and crisis that may have been traditionally repressed in Ireland at large However dysfunction also envisages mediation managing transcending and healing As such this volume examines how Ireland tackles dysfunction at large but more importantly how mediation managing healing and transcending help in the understanding of the ever changing and on going process of the construction of an Irish identity today sometimes looking back at the past but always creating the need of inventing new ways to understand the future of Ireland The collection presents essays which tackle dysfunction from different and multifarious perspectives that range from sociological historical and literary discourses to more contemporary insights into dysfunction in today s Ireland It encompasses theory and analysis and includes the works of both senior academics and emerging scholars as well as those outside academia
