Elliott, Richard Rosenbaum-Elliott, Larry Percy, Simon Pervan, 2015 Written by an expert author team this engaging textbook builds upon the traditional frameworks of brand strategy to analyse the emotional and cultural impact real world brands have on contemporary consumers Library Issues, 2015 Content is Currency Jon Wuebben, 2011-12-09 New strategies in SEO and SMM to help grow your business

In the digital age content is no longer confined to the written page It is spread across web and mobile taking the form of podcasts webinars widgets and blog posts Powerful content tells the story of your product or business but it means nothing if it's not written well optimized for search and social media and properly marketed In Content is Currency content strategist Jon Wuebben explains the fine art of content development by utilizing the latest Search Engine Optimization SEO and Social Media Marketing SMM techniques and provides you with the tools and strategies you need to get your online content noticed You will learn What types of content best suit your specific business market and industry How key content tactics influence search engine rankings and sales conversion How to leverage social media to connect with your target market How to merge the many elements of your web's presence Don't lose your target audience to the millions of online search results or allow them to click away because your content doesn't engage Let Content is Currency teach you the techniques to get your content onto the screens and into the minds of B2B and B2C viewers everywhere The Prison School Lizbet

Simmons, 2016-11-22 Public schools across the nation have turned to the criminal justice system as a gold standard of discipline As public schools and offices of justice have become collaborators in punishment rates of African American suspension and expulsion have soared dropout rates have accelerated and prison populations have exploded Nowhere perhaps has the War on Crime been more influential in broadening racialized academic and socioeconomic disparity than in New Orleans Louisiana where in 2002 the criminal sheriff opened his own public school at the Orleans Parish Prison The Prison School as locals called it enrolled low income African American boys who had been removed from regular public schools because of nonviolent disciplinary offenses such as tardiness and insubordination By examining this school in the local and national context Lizbet Simmons shows how young black males are in the liminal state of losing educational affiliation while being caught in the net of correctional control In The Prison School she asks how schools and prisons became so intertwined What does this mean for students communities and a democratic society And how do we unravel the ties that bind the racialized realities of school failure and mass incarceration
