development of Macbeth's character At the beginning he is a man much honoured by his countrymen for his leading and courageous part in defence of his good king and native land During many conflicts he showed his great courage and he continues showing this personal quality also when he becomes king and he has to take a lot of difficult decisions But this first description about Macbeth's character is not the definitive one in fact as soon as we meet him we find out also his negative qualities for example that he is both ambitious and murderous It happens when the two Scottish generals Macbeth and his friend Banquo returning victorious from the great battle against a rebel army assisted by the troops of Norway meet three witches in the middle of the road They begin to speak to Macbeth the first of them greets him with the title of Thane of Glamis so it is in the reality the second follows by giving him the title of Thane of Cawdor to which honour he has no pretensions the third predicts that Macbeth will be king of Scotland Then turning to Banquo they prophesy that his son will be king of Scotland So they turn into the air and vanish After a while Macbeth and his friend are stopped by some messengers of the king who are empowered by him to confer upon Macbeth the dignity of Thane of Cawdor an event so miraculously corresponding with the predictions of the witches astonishes Macbeth who begins to think about the other and more important prophecy

Hero or Villain? Constructing Captain Ahab's Identity Kathrin Vogler, 2017-05-23 Seminar paper from the year 2015 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Literature Works grade 1.0 University of Stuttgart language English abstract In 1851 Herman Melville published his novel Moby Dick or The Whale which is considered an outstanding work of Romanticism and the American Renaissance Although it was a commercial failure at first its reputation as a Great American Novel grew during the twentieth century Other authors admit they wished they had written it themselves and praise the novel What makes the novel especially interesting is the protagonist Captain Ahab who is on a monomaniacal quest for revenge on the white whale Moby Dick that took his leg on a previous voyage The scholars' opinions about Ahab range from being a villain to being a hero whereby some scholars might feel ambiguous and hesitant to put Ahab in either one of the categories The complexity of Ahab's character makes it hard to categorize him in either good or bad because he really displays qualities of both This paper's aim is to look behind Captain Ahab's facade in order to find out how Melville constructed his protagonist and why he constructed him the way he did First of all it is important to look at some key features that occur in Ahab's character namely the battle between free will and fate madness and obsession with revenge The second part of this paper takes a closer look at possible influences on the construction of Captain Ahab by comparing Ahab to other leaders In a comparison to King Ahab of Israel the topic of religion in Moby Dick will be mentioned a comparison to Milton's Satan will deal with Ahab's satanic features and the last comparison will connect Ahab to the tragic hero of Shakespeare Finally the main findings will be summarized in a conclusion
