The Formation of Regional Religious Systems in Greater China Jiang Wu, 2022-04-21 The rise of Spatial Humanities has spurred a digital revolution in the field of Chinese studies especially in the study of religion Based on years of data compilation and analysis of religious sites this book explores the formation of Regional Religious Systems RRS in Greater China in unprecedented scope and depth

It addresses quantitatively the enduring historical and contemporary issues of China's deep rooted regionalism and spatially variegated cultural and religious landscape. A range of topics are explored: theoretical discussions of the concept of RRS; case studies of regional and local religious institutions; the formation of local cults and pilgrimage network and the spread of religious networks to overseas Chinese communities and the Bon religion in Tibet. The book also considers long standing challenges of researching with spatial data for humanities and social science research such as data collection, integration, spatial analysis and map creation. This book will be of interest to students and scholars in Religious Studies, Cultural Studies, Chinese Studies, Digital Humanities, Human Geography and Sociology.
