Debashis Chakraborty,Oindrila Dey,2024-10-10 p This book is a machine generated literature overview that explores the impact of the World Trade Organization WTO on international trade and its development It looks at international trade before and after 1995 when WTO was established It highlights the journey of the reciprocity based reforms under WTO that were expected to help the developing and less developed countries LDCs more vis vis their developed counterparts given the existence of systemic and structural bottlenecks in the latter territories The enabling steps were further expected to promote exports from developing countries and LDCs in line with their comparative advantage patterns enhance the wage level and in turn facilitate development of local population The book showcases how during the first decade after WTO inception a considerable progress was made for facilitating exports from the lower and lower middle income countries through crucial provisions like less than full reciprocity LTFR Generalized System of Preferences GSP support measures under Aid for Trade zero duty preferences under Special and Differential Treatment SDT and so on However the pace of WTO reforms has slowed down in the aftermath of the sub prime crisis in 2008 09 and subsequent focus on formation of regional trade agreements RTAs In particular in the aftermath of Covid 19 a trend towards de globalization has been noticed with considerable ramifications for the development of lower income countries In this background there is a need to analyze how the deepening of trade flows and the subsequent de globalization waves in the global canvas have traversed different paths in different continents and draw the appropriate lessons for the understanding the trade development interlinkage therein With insightful observations from the human editors this machine generated overview would be of interest to academicians policy research community advisory research community and students of international trade globally International Trade
