Mother Brain Chelsea Conaboy,2022-09-13 Health and science journalist Chelsea Conaboy explodes the concept of maternal instinct and tells a new story about what it means to become a parent Conaboy expected things to change with the birth of her child What she didn't expect was how different she would feel But she would soon discover what was behind this her changing brain Though Conaboy was prepared for the endless dirty diapers the sleepless nights and the joy of holding her newborn she did not anticipate this shift in self as deep as it was disorienting Mother Brain is a groundbreaking exploration of the parental brain that untangles insidious myths from complicated realities New parents undergo major structural and functional brain changes driven by hormones and the deluge of stimuli a baby provides These neurobiological changes help all parents birthing or otherwise adapt in those intense first days and prepare for a long period of learning how to meet their child's needs Pregnancy produces such significant changes in brain anatomy that researchers can easily sort those who have had one from those who haven't And all highly involved parents no matter their path to parenthood develop similar caregiving circuitry Yet this emerging science which provides key insights into the wide ranging experience of parenthood from its larger role in shaping human nature to the intensity of our individual emotions is mostly absent from the public conversation about parenthood The story that exists in the science today is far more meaningful than the idea that mothers spring into being by instinct Weaving the latest neuroscience and social psychology together with new reporting Conaboy reveals unexpected upsides generations of scientific neglect and a powerful new narrative of parenthood The Ladies' World ,1896 Managing Global Risks in the Urban Age Yee-Kuang Heng,2016-03-03 The first full length exposition of what it terms a global city global risks nexus this volume crosses disciplinary boundaries to draw upon research from Security Studies Geography Sociology and Urban Studies Innovative in its approach integrating theories about Global Cities with those positing a Global Risk Society Yee Kuang Heng positions this research in the midst of two concurrent global trends that will gain more significance in coming years The world is experiencing the consequences of not only rapid globalisation but also urbanization In 2008 the UN declared that more than half the world s population was now urban At the same time highly connected global cities like New York London Tokyo and Singapore also face rapidly spreading global risks such as pandemics and financial crises Unique in developing a typology of global risks that threaten a global city like Singapore beyond its Asian focus the book also draws out thematic and policy lessons pertinent to other global cities Global cities do not simply materialize They are dependent on a range of stakeholders at various levels that produce and re produce its command and control capabilities in the face of global risks Singapore s experiences managing global risks in the financial aviation and maritime domains are common concerns shared by many countries and cities that have or aspire to develop similar critical infrastructure Building and Engineering News ,1929
