Alone and Invisible No More Dr. Allan S. Teel, 2011-07-13 In Alone and Invisible No More physician Allan S Teel MD describes how to overhaul our eldercare system Based on his own efforts to create humane affordable alternatives in Maine Teel s program harnesses both staff and volunteers to help people remain in their homes and communities It offers assistance with everyday challenges uses technology to keep older people connected to each other and their families and stay safe This approach works

Getting Me Cheap Amanda Freeman, Lisa Dodson, 2022-11-29 Two groundbreaking sociologists explore the way the American dream is built on the backs of working poor women Many Americans take comfort and convenience for granted We eat at nice restaurants order groceries online and hire nannies to care for kids Getting Me Cheap is a riveting portrait of the lives of the low wage workers primarily women who make this lifestyle possible Sociologists Lisa Dodson and Amanda Freeman follow women in the food health care home care and other low wage industries as they struggle to balance mothering with bad jobs and without public aid While these women tend to the needs of well off families their own children frequently step into premature adult roles providing care for siblings and aging family members Based on years of in depth field work and hundreds of eye opening interviews Getting Me Cheap explores how America traps millions of women and their children into lives of stunted opportunity and poverty in service of giving others of us the lives we seek Destined to rank with works like Evicted and Nickle and Dimed for its revelatory glimpse into how our society functions behind the scenes Getting Me Cheap also offers a way forward with both policy solutions and a keen moral vision for organizing women across class lines

Humanitarian Work Psychology S. C Carr, M. MacLachlan, A. Furnham, 2012-04-11 Contextualizing Humanitarian work in history justice methods and professional ethics this book articulates process skills for transformational partnerships between diverse organizations motivating education organisational learning and selecting the disaster workforce

African American Families Angela J. Hattery, Earl Smith, 2007-04-19 Bravo to the authors They have done an excellent job addressing the issues that are critical to community members policy makers and interventionists concerned with Black families in the context of our nation Michael C Lambert University of Missouri Colombia African American Families is a timely work The strength of this text lies in the depth of coverage clarity and the ability to combine secondary sources statistics and qualitative data to reveal the plight of African Americans in society Edward Opoku Dapaah Winston Salem State University African American Families is both engaging and challenging and is perhaps one of the most important works I have read in many years This book will most certainly move the discourse of the socio economic conditions of black families forward beyond the boundaries already set by other books in the market African American Families is an excellent book whose time has come and one that I would most definitely adopt Lateef O Badru University of Louisville African American Families provides a systematic sociological study of contemporary life for families of African descent living in the United States Analyzing both quantitative and qualitative data authors Angela

J Hattery and Earl Smith identify the structural barriers that African Americans face in their attempts to raise their children and create loving healthy and raise the children of the next generation Key Features Uses the lens provided by the race class and gender paradigm Examples illustrate the ways in which multiple systems of oppression interact with patterns of self defeating behavior to create barriers that deny many African Americans access to the American dream Addresses issues not fully or adequately addressed in previous books on Black families These issues include personal responsibility and disproportionately high rates of incarceration family violence and chronic illnesses like HIV AIDS Brings statistical data to life The authors weave personal stories based on interviews they ve conducted into the usual data from scholarly literature and from U S Census Bureau reports Provides several illustrations from Hurricane Katrina A contemporary analysis of a recent disaster demonstrates many of the issues presented in the book such as housing segregation and predatory lending practices Offers extensive data tables in the appendices Assembled in easy to read tables students are given access to the latest national agencies data from agencies including the U S Census Bureau Centers for Disease Control and Bureau of Justice Statistics Intended Audience This is an ideal textbook for advanced undergraduate and graduate courses such as African American Families Sociology of the Family Contemporary Families and Race and Ethnicity in the departments of Human Development and Family Studies Sociology African American Studies and Black Studies

Controlling Reproduction
Nancy E. Riley, Nilanjana Chatterjee, 2022-11-08 Controlling reproduction who has children how many and when is important to states communities families and individuals across the globe However the stakes are even higher than might at first be appreciated control over reproduction is an incredibly powerful tool Contests over reproduction necessarily involve control over women and their bodies Yet because reproduction is so intertwined with other social processes and institutions controlling it also extends far into most corners of social economic and political life Nancy Riley and Nilanjana Chatterjee explore how various social institutions beyond the individual including state religion market and family are involved in the negotiation of reproductive power They draw on examples from across the world such as direct fertility policies in China and Romania the influence of the Catholic Church in Poland and Brazil racial discrimination and resistance in Mexico and the US and how Japan and Norway use laws intended to encourage gender equality to indirectly shape reproduction This engaging book sheds new light on the operations of power and gender in society It will appeal to students taking courses on reproduction in departments of sociology anthropology and gender studies
