The book tells the story of three distinct phases in which the pandemic unfolded: the way a wide range of brands and agencies responded and how the consumer landscape changed during the first 15 months of the crisis. Advertising professionals from a broad range of award-winning advertising agencies across the United States who experienced the crisis first-hand reflect on how COVID-19 disrupted the industry and what they learned along the way. Each case contains themes that emerged through data analysis along with examples of advertising practice at various stages of the pandemic.
