Delusive Speech in the Sharing Economy Julie Reid, 2025-03-04 In this examination of how the rise of online sharing economy platforms has facilitated online crime this book shows how while marketed as trustworthy peer to peer services these platforms are highly vulnerable to misuse by scammers and are used for the dissemination of delusive speech The analysis centres around the concept of delusive speech a sub set of disinformation designed to deceive and motivate by criminal intent Looking beyond the economic and disruptive impacts of sharing economy platforms like Uber Airbnb and others this book situates these Big Tech giants as mass communication channels that are frequently misused by bad actors to distribute dangerous content globally Drawing from over 600 cases of victims lured into scams or physical danger via misleading Airbnb listings the book provides a detailed case study exposing Airbnb s failure to establish legitimate safety measures despite branding its platform as a community of trust Incorporating netnography and thematic analysis the author theorises the deceptive semiotic structure of delusive speech and evaluates practical mechanisms Airbnb could employ to prevent scams and crime on its platform With a global audience including researchers in communication and media studies digital media and media industries as well as tech journalists Silicon Valley critics policymakers and digital rights advocates this book unmasks how sharing economy giants like Airbnb contribute to an epidemic of online deception causing real world harm

Genius Makers Cade Metz, 2021-03-16 This colorful page turner puts artificial intelligence into a human perspective Through the lives of Geoff Hinton and other major players Metz explains this transformative technology and makes the quest thrilling Walter Isaacson author of The Code Breaker Recipient of starred reviews in both Kirkus and Library Journal THE UNTOLD TECH STORY OF OUR TIME What does it mean to be smart To be human What do we really want from life and the intelligence we have or might create With deep and exclusive reporting across hundreds of interviews New York Times Silicon Valley journalist Cade Metz brings you into the rooms where these questions are being answered Where an extraordinarily powerful new artificial intelligence has been built into our biggest companies our social discourse and our daily lives with few of us even noticing Long dismissed as a technology of the distant future artificial intelligence was a project consigned to the fringes of the scientific community Then two researchers changed everything One was a sixty four year old computer science professor who didn t drive and didn t fly because he could no longer sit down but still made his way across North America for the moment that would define a new age of technology The other was a thirty six year old neuroscientist and chess prodigy who laid claim to being the greatest game player of all time before vowing to build a machine that could do anything the human brain could do They took two very different paths to that lofty goal and they disagreed on how quickly it would arrive But both were soon drawn into the heart of the tech industry Their ideas drove a new kind of arms race spanning Google Microsoft Facebook and OpenAI a new lab founded by Silicon Valley kingpin Elon Musk But some believed that China would beat them all to the finish line Genius Makers dramatically presents the fierce conflict among national interests shareholder value the pursuit of scientific knowledge and the very human concerns about privacy security bias and prejudice Like a great Victorian novel this world of eccentric brilliant often unimaginably yet suddenly wealthy characters draws you into the most profound moral questions we can ask And like a great mystery it presents the story and facts that lead to a core vital question How far will we let it go
