Place-based Learning for the Plate Joel B. Pontius, Michael P. Mueller, David Greenwood, 2020-06-08 This edited volume explores 21st century stories of hunting foraging and fishing for food as unique forms of place based learning Through the authors narratives it reveals complex social and ecological relationships while readers sample the flavors of foraging in Portland Oregon feel some of what it s like to grow up hunting and gathering as a person of Oglala Lakota and Shoshone Bannock descent track the immersive process of learning to communicate with rocky mountain elk encounter a road killed deer as a spontaneous source of local meat and more Other topics in the collection connect place food and learning to issues of identity activism spirituality food movements conservation traditional and elder knowledge and the ethics related to eating the more than human world This volume will bring lively discussion to courses on place based learning food studies environmental education outdoor recreation experiential education holistic learning human dimensions of natural resource management sustainability food systems environmental ethics and others The Newsmaker Lyn Funnell, 2021-09-21 It s the future Unemployment is down to 50% so people have a lot more leisure time and they want to be entertained They re bored with practically everything that s been done before so it s the job of a Newsmaker not just to report the news but to invent it Mr Mulligan is interviewing the new Newsmaker and encouraging him to use his imagination like his dad used to until he got killed Will he be able to come up with any new ideas Cold War Workers Isabel Campbell, 2025-04-15 When Canada sought to protect its borders and aid its allies during the Cold War many people were recruited to build the emerging security state as construction and maintenance workers engineers members of the armed forces medical researchers and research subjects Security work transformed the lives of individuals families and communities in ways that were both predictable and surprising and both beneficial and harmful the militarization and colonization of Indigenous lives and lands was especially disruptive The opening essays of Cold War Workers intimately portray the complicated effects of Cold War labour upon Indigenous lives Elmer Sinclair a residential school survivor and member of the Canadian Armed Forces achieved equality with white men through his militarized masculinity His more positive professional experience contrasts with those of Indigenous workers on northern radar lines many of whom lost languages connections to the land and other elements of traditional cultures as they sought new skills and better employment Diverse Indigenous experiences of Cold War security work set the scene for the second set of essays which explore the impact of security preoccupations on marginalized groups the study of extreme isolation through scientific experimentation on human subjects the targeting of gay men with psychiatric labelling to enforce an idealized masculinity and the restriction of gender mobility in the Canadian military and the pushback from servicewomen Cold War Workers raises questions about the influence of settler colonial masculine institutional values on those who laboured for the Cold War state and society By comparing the experiences of different types of workers families and communities this volume reveals how race gender and privilege affected people in varied and sometimes unexpected ways Love Like Crazy Crystal B. Bright, 2018-04-17 A chance to shine The closest Avery Shields expects to get to the music industry is her janitor position at Charisma recording studio and singing secretly in her local karaoke bar Working two jobs and studying full time she s doing all she can to earn her parents trust after making mistakes in high school But now a gorgeous stranger is filling her head with dreams of singing professionally and filling her nights with desire Lazarus Kyson s A R career took a hit after he was wrongfully accused of harassment To restore his reputation he needs to discover a new talent And when he least expects it there she is singing while she cleans the Charisma offices As stubborn as she is talented she refuses to audition If he wants Avery her voice and her heart he ll have to open himself up for the first time for a love too crazy good to let go Praise for Crystal B Bright
