Higher Ed: Tough Times in a World Divided Phillip L Beukema, 2025-04-02 It s no secret that the world of higher education in the U S is in trouble It faces image problems some of the worst financial pressures ever political turmoil in at least half the states in our country and much more Not all these challenges are of academia s own making but many are Too many silos deep roots in tradition and confused institutional missions all contribute to the state of affairs Chapter by chapter the author lays bare what he regards as the most consequential matters confronting our higher education enterprise today These include everything from enrollment volatility and decline to the impact of a culture war on the DEI movement dim prospects for improved operational funding growing partisanship of university trustees and system boards the impacts of heavy reliance on contingent faculty increasingly unattractive and non competitive faculty salaries and institutional missions that have strayed or enlarged with unintended consequences As exhausting as this short list is it covers only part of the territory Colleges and universities of all stripes are affected from community and technical colleges to four year and graduate colleges and universities both private and public While there is no silver bullet at the ready the author outlines a rough blueprint for the kinds of initiatives and strategies needed to tackle the most consequential challenges we face today For many a school survival is truly at stake but achieving a turnaround is possible only if their leaders have the vision and courage to guide their institutions in the direction of life changing innovation and renewal

Higher Education in the Arab World Adnan Badran, Elias Baydoun, Sandra Hillman, Joelle Mesmar, 2024-09-23 This book provides a comprehensive insight and roadmap to accelerate the implementation of digital transformation DX within Arab Universities along with an understanding of the challenges that accompany such change It explores the elements of DX in universities and presents case studies and experiences from Arab Universities along with recommendations that facilitate the use of DX in higher education Within the Arab region the potential for digitization within the higher education landscape has significant outcomes and impacts on the growth progression and development of this sector Digital transformation allows universities to respond to change while fostering a student centered approach and remaining relevant to the growing demands of the twenty first century It also improves the universities activities such as teaching and learning curricula development and implementation processes operations support services and infrastructure This increases the university s competitive advantage locally and internationally Embracing and adopting DX requires a paradigm shift in a university s strategy and culture The Arab world is home to more than 1 000 universities and in excess of 13 million students and its higher education system offers a diverse range of undergraduate and postgraduate programs To continue our series of books on higher education we propose that the theme of this 8th book should be Higher Education in the Arab World Digital Transformation in universities In a complex regional and global climate this book provokes a rich exploration of ideas around the challenges surrounding this sector and how to address them
