was first written     NIV Application Commentary Craig L. Blomberg,1995 Most Bible commentaries take us on a one way trip from the twentieth century to the first century But they leave us there assuming that we can somehow make the return journey on our own In other words they focus on the original meaning of the passage but don t discuss its contemporary application The information they offer is valuable but the job is only half done The NIV Application Commentary Series helps us with both halves of the interpretive task This new and unique series shows readers how to bring an ancient message into modern context It explains not only what the Bible means but also how it can speak powerfully today     The Anchor Bible: Romans ,1964 The Anchor Yale Bible is a fresh approach to the world s greatest classic Its object is to make the Bible accessible to the modern reader its method is to arrive at the meaning of biblical literature through exact translation and extended exposition and to reconstruct the ancient setting of the biblical story as well as the circumstances of its transcription and the characteristics of its transcribers It is a project of international and interfaith scope Protestant Catholic and Jewish scholars from many countries contribute individual volumes and is an effort to make available all the significant historical and linguistic knowledge which bears on the interpretation of the biblical record It is aimed at the general reader with no special formal training in biblical studies yet it is written with the most exacting standards of scholarship reflecting the highest technical accomplishment Vol 1 p ii     The Pauline Writings Mark A. White,2009 Creation is in crisis Why then do we continue in activities that are manifestly harmful to ourselves and to others Part of the answer is undoubtedly ignorance about what we are actually doing But part is also that we do not want to face up to the fact that the material comforts we enjoy are bought at a cost to other people and to the natural world This volume highlights the seriousness of environmental degradation and climate change the root causes and possible solutions and the contribution of Christian thinking to these issues Both scientific and theological points of view are presented by the distinguished writers
