Patrick Colm Hogan, Lalita Pandit

Sahaj Path Rabindranath Tagore:

Rabindranath Tagore Patrick Colm Hogan, Lalita Pandit, 2003 This collection provides a lucid introduction for those unfamiliar with Tagore's work while simultaneously presenting important new scholarship and novel interpretation. Rabindranath Tagore is considered the greatest modern writer of India. He is also one of the great social and political figures in modern Indian history. After he received the Nobel Prize for literature in 1913, Tagore's reputation in the West has been based primarily on his mystical poetry. But beyond poetry, Tagore wrote novels of social realism treating nationalism, religious intolerance, and violence. He wrote analytic works on social reform, education, and science, even engaging in a brief dialogue with Albert Einstein. Without ignoring religion and mysticism, the essays in this collection concentrate on this other Tagore. They explicate Tagore's writings in relation to its historical and literary context and at the same time draw out those aspects of Tagore's work that continue to bear on contemporary society. Rabindranath Tagore's Journey as an Educator

Mohammad A. Quayum, 2022-12-20 This book looks at Rabindranath Tagore's experiments and journey as an educator and the influence of humanistic worldviews, nationalism, and cosmopolitanism in his philosophy of education. It juxtaposes the educational systems and institutions set up by the British colonial administration with Tagore's pedagogical vision and schools in Santiniketan, West Bengal. Brahmacharya Asram, 1901; Visva Bharati University, 1921; and Sriniketan Institute of Village Reconstruction, 1922. An educational pioneer and a poet-teacher, Tagore combined nature and culture, tradition and modernity, East and West, in formulating his educational methodology. The essays in this volume analyse the relevance of his theories and practice in encouraging greater cultural exchange and the dissolution of the walls between classrooms and communities. This book will be useful for scholars and researchers of education, Tagore studies, literature, cultural studies, sociology of education, South Asian studies, and colonial and postcolonial studies. Making Imperial Mentalities J. Across the diversity of imperial territories, it explores themes such as the diverse nature of political socialisation, the various agents and agencies of persuasion, reaction to the experience of dominance by dominant and dominated, the paradoxical impact of the missionary, and the subversive role of some women. It also considers the significant issues of colonial adaptation, resistance, and rejection, and the post-imperial consequences of imperialism. Disciplined Subjects Sutapa Dutta, 2020-12-23 This book examines interactions between Britain and India through the analytical framework of the production and circulation of knowledge throughout the long eighteenth century. Disciplined Subjects is one of the first works to analyse the imperial school curriculum and the ways in which it shaped and influenced Indian subjectivity. The author focuses on the endeavours of the colonial government, missionaries, and native stakeholders in determining the physical material and intellectual content of institutional learning in India. Further, the volume compares the changes in pedagogical practices and textbooks in schools.
